TAME CAT BABY vs. DEBT ATTACKS CHILD HELD AS HOSTAGE

WOMAN Mother and Child in Battle for Their Lives.

ALAMEDA, March 28.—Her face and hands terribly scratched by a large black cat that had been a pet for many years, Mrs. H. C. Wilsey of 1431 Sherman street had a desperate struggle to free herself from the claws of the feline this morning when it attacked her after injuring her small daughter.

Early this morning the cat went suddenly mad, and after chasing around the rooms of the Wilsey home attacked the 10-year-old daughter of Mrs. Wilsey.

The child's hands were terribly scratched by the cat, and her shrieks of pain while the animal was clawing at her flesh attracted the attention of her mother. Mrs. Wilsey rushed to the room where her child was helpless to ward off the mad feline.

She grabbed the cat by the throat and tore it away from her child's body. The cat fell to the floor, but in a moment it sprang at Mrs. Wilsey's face.

TERRIBLE BATTLE.

Clinging to her clothes the cat made frantic efforts to scratch her face.

One long scratch was inflicted on her right cheek and her hands terribly clawed before she could loosen the hold of the vicious animal.

She then threw the cat from a window.

CALLS FOR POLICE.

After her terrible experience with the animal, Mrs. Wilsey telephoned to the police station for a patrolman to come to the house and shoot the feline.

Detective Burns was sent to the house and killed the animal. It was necessary to call a physician to dress the wounds of mother and daughter caused by the cat scratches.

CONFESSES HIS PART IN DARING HOLD-UP

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Charles Foster, alias Frank, and Eddie Fitzgerald, pugilist, have been arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the robbery of George Gurlovich in his restaurant at 644 Haight street last Sunday morning. The police state that Frank has admitted his part in the crime, but Fitzgerald is silent. The former was released recently from San Quentin.

TONY LUBELSKI BUYS A FINE HOME

One of the largest real estate deals on Telegraph avenue was consummated at the law office of Clinton G. Dodge yesterday when Tony Lubelski bought the beautiful Hunt residence on the southeast corner of Telegraph avenue and Twenty-seventh streets. While the interior of the house is of the most beautiful polished woodwork of different kinds, it is the intention of Mr. Lubelski to so add to it in artistic beauty as to make it one of the handsomest homes on the coast. The exact purchase price is not known, but said to be between $40,000 and $50,000. Myron L. Wurts was the real estate agent who secured the property for Mr. Lubelski.

Mother of This Little Lad Makes an Attempt to Kidnap Him From Berkeley Home.

BERKELEY, March 28.—A child held as hostage is the baffling situation that confronts the local police in Berkeley. The story related by THE TRIBUNE a month ago, when Mrs. Jesus Alcantar, an aged Mexican woman, residing at 2147 Center street, refused to give little four-year-old Johnny Knicks to his mother in lieu of an $87 debt, reached a climax today when Mrs. Marguerite Knicks, a native of Madrid, Spain, and the mother of the boy, appealed to the police for aid.

Accompanied by a patrolman, the Knicks woman, whom the Berkeley police say is a habitué of Oakland's underworld, and said to be an associate of a notorious colored woman of ill repute and familiarly known to the denizens of the redlight district as "Cakewalk Martha," appeared this afternoon at the Alcantar cottage to claim the lad. The aged woman was on the alert, as she expected such a call.

BANKER BREAKS WRIST PILING SILVER DOLLARS

CHICAGO, March 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Omaha says: "Waldo Foster, receiving teller of the United States National Bank, is nursing a crippled arm, the result of having broken a bone in the wrist while counting silver dollars. He did it the day the returns to the controller of the currency showed the biggest deposits in Omaha banks of any day at this season of the year."

LIGHT IS THROWN HERE!

District Attorney Commences an Inquiry.

"I am convinced from what information I now have that it is absolutely my duty as the public prosecutor of this county to make a rigid investigation in regard to the conduct of public officials in Oakland in their dealings with the telephone companies," said District Attorney Everett J. Brown this morning.

"I expect to close my argument today in the case of the People vs. Pembroke, which case has occupied my entire attention for the last ten days."

"Immediately upon the close of my argument I shall take up this matter."

"I do not care to discuss this matter any further at this time, as I think that I can accomplish more by working than by talking."

The statement was made by the district attorney in response to information received from San Francisco, which stated that Heney had data on certain City Councilmen on this side of the bay and that when he could get around to it he would send Burns to Oakland and make investigations. Both telephone companies are to be investigated.

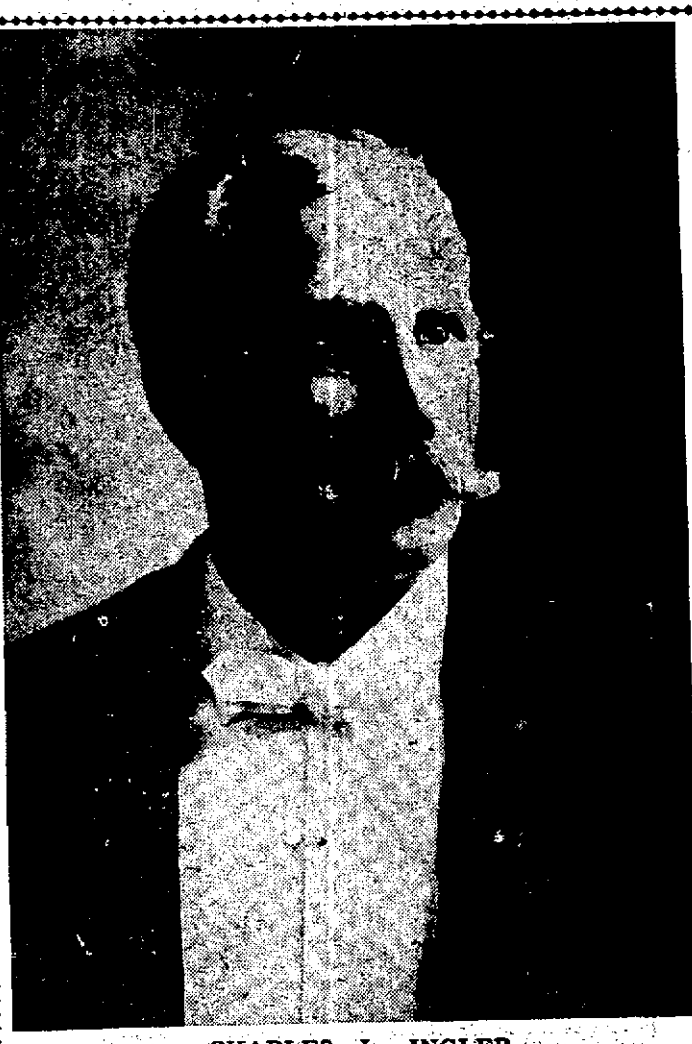

IN BERKELEY.

The scope of investigation in regard to the granting of telephone franchises is said to reach along this side of the bay, not only in Oakland but in the suburban towns. It has been reported that the Town Trustees of Berkeley would also come under the investigation of the district attorney's office.

Mr. Brown is hardly able to give a statement of the information he has at the present time and just what his program will be is not a matter for publication at this date.

The prosecuting officer has had his hands full with criminal cases for the past few weeks and practically ever since he came into the office at the first of the year. When the Pembroke case is disposed of Brown will sift the telephone franchise to the bottom, and with the aid of the Grand Jury will probe into the relations the city fathers of the Alameda county towns have with the telephone men who are at present in the limelight of the Grand Jury in San Francisco.

GRAND JURY.

"We have the authority to investigate these things," said Charles Ingler, foreman of the Alameda county Grand Jury and also a member of the Oakland Board of Education, "and we will do our duty."

Aside from this Ingler would not commit himself nor would he say whether they discussed this matter at yesterday's meeting.

MAYOR MOTT.

Mayor Frank K. Mott said: "If the district attorney and Grand Jury take up this matter, I want them to have the fullest investigation. We have nothing to hide in this city. Let them turn on the limelight. If there has been any crooked-work we want it exposed. So far as I am concerned I do not know of any graft in Oakland or Alameda county."

WESTERN PACIFIC BUYS M'CLOUD RIVER RAILWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—A special dispatch received here from Redding says: "The McCloud River Railroad Company has sold its line, extending from Sisson and Upton on the Southern Pacific to the town of McCloud, and beyond, to the Western Pacific Railway Company."

The Western Pacific not long ago acquired the Nevada, California & Oregon line. This line is surveyed to Alturas, Modoc county, and the McCloud road is surveyed and building past Bartles on toward the Pitt river. It is now said that the plan of the Western Pacific is to connect the two roads at Alturas, Modoc county.

STRANGER ON STEAMER BLOWS OUT HIS BRAINS

STOCKTON, March 28.—Putting a 32-caliber revolver in his mouth, a stranger on the river steamer J. D. Peters, en route to Stockton from San Francisco, pulled the trigger and sent a bullet crashing into his brain about 3 o'clock this morning. The remains are now in the morgue awaiting identification. In a pocket was found an undated letter written to him by George Dent from Kenwood, Sonoma county, addressing him as August. On the boat he spoke of having a daughter in Stockton.

carried a cane. He wore a gray business suit and light Fedora hat. A card bearing the name "Redding Saloon," and a pair of glasses were found in his clothing.

TELLS POLICE HER HUSBAND IS MISSING

Mrs. John Green, of 6602 San Pablo avenue, reported at police headquarters this morning that her husband, aged 75 years, had been missing for the last two days. She believes he may have met with foul play. He was in good health when he left home and the wife thinks he may have been waylaid. A curious part of Mrs. Green's recital was that she gave the name Smith as an alias. She did not give an explanation of the two names.

HENEY PRESENT.

Assistant District Attorney Heney, who with the district attorney and Attorney Cobb was present for the people, was willing to consent to the delay, but Judge Lawlor required that the arraignment of Glass proceed at once, suggesting that afterward the matter of postponement could be considered.

STATE VS. LOUIS GLASS

Most Impressive Is This Scene in Courtroom

By Associated Press,
SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—What was perhaps the most unusual and impressive tableau thus far created by the prosecution in the bribery-graft investigations was presented this morning in the auditorium of Temple Sherith Israel, where Judge Lawlor's department of the Superior Court is temporarily located.

In the great room with its lofty dome, dimly lighted by brilliantly stained windows, with here and there an electric bulb gleaming from the frescoed walls across whose Hebrew inscriptions the earthquake cracks of last year run in ragged lines, one of "those higher up" was called to plead to a felony in the crime of wholesale bribery, charged against him by the grand jury whose investigations into municipal affairs have latterly startled the country.

"The people of California against Louis Glass, for arraignment," called Judge Lawlor from his electric lighted desk in the pulpit of the temple. The indicted man, who as vice-president of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company has for years occupied a high position in the business and social spheres of San Francisco and the Pacific Coast, started to rise to his feet, but was pushed back by his attorney, T. C. Coogan, who addressed the court.

"We ask, if your honor please," he said, "that each of these nine indictments be continued for a few days. The defendant does not desire to plead at this time, as copies of the testimony before the grand jury upon which he was indicted have not yet been served upon the defense."

SANDERSON STORY IS TOLD

Confession Made to State Is Before Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—All the pertinent facts about the graft investigation which it was credited that Supervisor W. W. Sanderson had confessed first to Assistant District Attorney Heney in Arizona and later to him and Rudolph Spreckles in Palo Alto were placed before the grand jury yesterday and there was joy in the camp of the prosecutors.

Supervisor W. W. Sanderson made his first appearance before the grand jury yesterday afternoon and confirmed in detail the confession of bribetaking which he made to Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns several weeks ago at Palo Alto.

BRISES HE TOOK.
He told of having received $4000 for his vote on the trolley franchise for the United Railroads; $5000 for his vote on the telephone deal from the Pacific States Telephone Company; $1500 from the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company for voting for an 8-cent gas rate, and $800 for his voting the fight permits to the local fight trust.

BROKE DOWN ON STAND.
Mr. Sanderson showed the traces of his illness yesterday. When he emerged from the grand jury room he was visibly affected although he wore the smile of satisfaction which seems to have been cultivated by all the supervisors who have undergone that trial. It was said, one of the rumors which seems always to leak out, that Mr. Sanderson had completely broken down on the stand. He refused to make any detailed statement as to the questions asked of him or of what he had himself told the grand jury.

GLAD IT'S OVER.
"I have told everything confirming my confession to Mr. Heney and Detective Burns at Palo Alto. Nothing has been kept back, and I am glad that I have been able to come here and tell it all. It is a great relief to get it off my mind. I think that I will be able to sleep better at night now than I have done in the past."

VERY SICK MAN.
Mr. Sanderson is a very ill man. It was stated authoritatively yesterday that the demands of his physicians that he return at once to Arizona will be permitted and the supervisor will leave for that country in a few days. He is one of the ablest of all the supervisors and a person of education and refinement. It was the admissions he made which started the sleuth hound Special Agent Burns on the trail which has resulted in the bagging of the recent game. He has been granted full immunity by District Attorney Langdon, just in what way or how is not made known for legal and technical reasons.

WILL ROOSEVELT POLICE FORCE AND THEIR WORK

Grand Jury to Work Nights Touring the City With View to Needed Police Reforms.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—As chairman of the grand jury committee on police, Charles Sonntag is getting greatly interested in the work of the police of the city. He is convinced there is material for work along the lines of reconstruction and a reform in regulations. To carry out his plans for investigating the conditions, Mr. Sonntag has arranged for a series of "after dark" grand jury inspections along the lines of those made famous by President Roosevelt when he was touring the precincts of New York police.

WOULD BE GOOD IF
Under proper management Mr. Sonntag is free to say there could be no better police department in the country than is established in this city. He bases this upon the investigations he has already personally made while planning this new move. In fact he has accumulated a lot of evidence as to the improper enforcements of laws which he is satisfied can be remedied by the police if permitted to do it or are forced to complete the full duty for which they are chosen.

LETTER TO DINAN.
Suggestion number one from Mr. Sonntag was contained in this letter which he has just forwarded to Chief Dinan. It reads as follows:

San Francisco, Cal., March 27, 1907.
J. F. Dinan, Esq., Chief of Police, San Francisco, Cal.—Dear Sir: I wish to call your attention to the violation of the law on the part of some drivers of teams who are engaged in removing debris from lots in the burned district. These miscreants get paid by the load, and in order to get in as many loads as possible, have dumped the debris in our public streets, and that is done in the night time, when there is little chance of their being discovered, owing to the lack of vigilance on the part of police officers. Within a few days debris has been thrown into the street in front of the St. Francis Hotel; on Geary street, between Mason and Powell, and on Mason street, between Geary and O'Farrell.

BE MORE WATCHFUL.
"I respectfully suggest that you instruct your officers to watch for these miscreants and arrest them. I will attend to the matter of their prosecution. If any more complaints are made to me in reference to this violation of the law I shall take the liberty of asking you to give me the name of the police officer on whose beat it occurs with a view to having him tried for neglect of duty. Respectfully yours,

"CHARLES SONNTAG,
"Committee of Grand Jury on Police and Enforcement of Law."

With the grand jury working night and day there will be more ground for apprehension.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.
Oakland Lodge No. 123, Fraternal Brotherhood, held its regular meeting last Friday evening at Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Alameda streets. President F. B. Eakin presiding.

After the drill team had seated the officers of the lodge, they returned to the interior and escorted our supreme president, Mr. Neldig; supreme chancellor, R. A. Chappell; and Supreme Sergeant, Mr. Costello, to the president's chair, where they were welcomed and given seats on the platform.

The meeting was largely attended, there being representatives from nineteen different lodges of the order. A class of fifteen candidates were initiated into the order by Sister Neldig.

Sister Neldig favored the meeting with a short address that was much appreciated by all. Brothers Chappell and Costello also favored the lodge with remarks. Most of the representatives of the lodges present also had something appropriate to say. Sister Neldig was presented with a large bouquet of carnations, with fitting remarks by Sister Morris. We hope to have the pleasure of another visit from Sister Neldig before very long. After lodge adjourned dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Tomorrow (Friday) evening is the regular open meeting and we hope to see all our friends present. Invitations may be secured from any of the members.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.
The chivalric welcome accorded visitors by the Oakland Lodge is the reason why its assemblages numerically are above the average. Its last one, held on Thursday, March 21, was no exception to the rule.

Nearly every grand domain in the supreme jurisdiction was represented. The rank of knight, in amplified form, was conferred on Esquires Nelson, Federer, Tirrell, Brown and Alnow. The ceremony was concluded in a most satisfactory manner.

Liberty Co., No. 11, uniform rank, Charles Hood commanding, assisted, adding brilliancy to the occasion. The music rendered by Professor Babet was highly appreciated, while a flow of eloquence, under the head of "Good of the order," was graciously received. Alameda Council No. 1, Order of the Grand Orient, will assemble this evening, Thursday, March 28, at 9 p. m. in Pythian Castle. A large class of Neophytes will be initiated.

MAPLE LEAF LODGE.
Maple Leaf Lodge No. 360 of the Fraternal Brotherhood, met on Friday last at Franklin hall, 410 Thirteenth street. President R. E. Nickel in the chair. Considerable business was transacted during the session and six applications were left with the committee.

Two candidates were present and were initiated. The attendance was not as large as usual but those who braved the storm enjoyed dancing and whist until a late hour. There were several visiting members present. A fine program and whist tomorrow night.

TO DEFEND RUEF IN COURT

Gage, Maybe Delmas, to Help Ruef Legally.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Former Governor Henry T. Gage was highly annoyed yesterday at the frequency with which he was forced to equivocate on the subject of his taking the lead in the defense of Abe Ruef when the curly boss is called into court to defend himself against the charges which are piling up against him every day of a Grand Jury session. The Los Angeles lawyer has been in the city for several days and he says because he has some matters demanding his attention before the Supreme Court.

Pointedly questioned regarding his being engaged by Ruef, the lawyer insisted the question be one of legal and professional etiquette which one had a right to ask him and which he has no desire to answer.

MAYBE DELMAS, TOO.
Not only is it conceded that Ruef has engaged this brilliant lawyer, but it is insisted that D. M. Delmas will be found at the attorney's table when the trials are fairly on.

UNWRITTEN LAW.
Ruef is himself somewhat of an exponent of the "unwritten law," if everything is that is alleged against him, and the services of Delmas would be of value for the man who can construe everything into an "unwritten law" must be able to authorize extensive violation of the rule by the law of inverse ratio.

Mr. Gage when asked if he would appear in court as counsel in any of the graft cases, replied that he could not answer a question of that nature.

MAY TALK LATER.
"It would be better to say," he said, "that I came to San Francisco in connection with a matter in the Supreme Court in which the matter of Ruef is under fire have nothing to do. Frankly I cannot say how long I shall stay here. Possibly I may be able to make more of a statement later."

Henry Ach is now in the saddle as the leading counsel for Abe Ruef. The passing into the background of Samuel Shortridge on the very recent appearance of the boss into court is considered to verify the rumor that there is dissension in the camp of Ruef's defense.

SHORTIDGE ANGRY.
Whether the rupture came about over the question of fees or matters of law is immaterial. There have been a number of things done by the boss which Shortridge did not approve either as the lawyer or as a man. He is angry, and it is not thought that Ruef will depend wholly upon Ach for the conducting of his defense and money will be no object to the boss when considered with a possibility of his escaping severe punishment.

ARRANGING HIS BAIL BONDS

So Say Relatives of Missing Mr. Detweiler.

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 28.—The Toledo police last night completely exploded the theory of the San Francisco police to the effect that A. K. Detweiler was now in Egypt. The police authorities received a telegram from the cashier of the Manhattan Hotel at New York City stating that A. K. Detweiler was registered at the hotel until Thursday last week. He left ostensibly for home, instructing the clerk to forward his mail to his Toledo address.

The local police are much wrought up over the story sent out to the effect that a local detective saw Detweiler on the streets of this city Monday but refused to arrest him. They state that they are doing all in their power to assist the San Francisco officers to apprehend him.

It is now authoritatively stated by the Toledo police that A. K. Detweiler is in hiding and will surrender when a bail bond of $100,000 can be arranged and public sentiment in San Francisco calms.

FILE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

They will transact a real estate business in Berkeley with a capital stock of $75,000, of which amount $50 has been commonly subscribed by W. B. Rising, John Fryer, J. P. Lobbett, John McCarthy and J. A. Martensetin, all of Berkeley.

WELDING CHAINS FORGED BY GRAND JURY FURNACE

Tracing Los Angeles Sack Which Poured Out Money to the Waiting Bribe Takers.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—President Case was on the grill yesterday afternoon.

Case, in addition to his presidency of the Home, is president of the Cass-Dameral Hardware Company of Los Angeles and an active church worker. He was in a state of utter collapse when he left the jury-room. He rushed into the street in a frantic manner and in answer to the questions hurled at him, shouted in frenzy:

"Gentlemen, for God's sake, leave me alone. I have nothing to say."

WHAT CASE TOLD.
President Case, however, did have something to say. He told the grand jury just the amount of money that was withdrawn from the treasury of the Home Telephone Company with the consent of himself and the southern board of directors. He told them that the money was to be used for the purpose of it accomplished, and that it was going to Oakland bank and would be at the call of the attorneys for the Home Telephone Company.

AFTER BIG ONES.
The words of President Case aided in welding the chain of evidence which the prosecution is drawing about some of the "big ones" in the Home Telephone Company. It might have been said that the case caused Case to show so much anxiety and care.

Case will be called again this afternoon and the question of his dealing with the Oakland banks and the knowledge that he may have of the withdrawal of money from those institutions for the purpose of paying Ruef, the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors, will be entered into and laid bare.

The examination of the Los Angeles and Oakland men connected with the Home Telephone Company began yesterday afternoon. During that time witnesses were also called to show what might be the connection of the Empire Construction Company with the transaction.

WITNESSES CALLED.
Percy T. Morgan, president of the California Wine Association and director of the Pacific States Telephone Company; W. C. Patterson, president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles; T. H. Brown, outside broker for the Adams-Phillips Company; J. S. Horan, telephone company owner and director of the Home Telephone Company of Los Angeles; T. S. Parkhurst Jr., purchasing agent of the Empire Construction Company of Oakland; Nicholas Prendergast, electrician and promoter of the Home Telephone Company of this city and Oakland; William Mead, president of the Central Bank of Los Angeles and a director in several telephone companies, among which is the Independent Telephone Company of Spokane, Portland and Seattle, and E. Oppenheimer all were placed on the stand.

MR. REARDON ABSENT.
J. S. Reardon, chief clerk of the Central Bank of Oakland, who was to appear before the jury yesterday with an abstract of deposits and withdrawals of his bank covering the period of his connection with that institution and embracing a period of eleven months was not present. He will appear today.

E. Oppenheimer was a witness brought before the jury, his examination being completed.

RUEF IS IN NEW JAIL NOW

Old Home of Mayor Schmitz Leased by Elisor.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Economy and the fear of Ruef's being rescued by friends has led Elisor Biggy to seek a new cell for the curly boss, and today the official party of jailers and prisoners moved into their new quarters at No. 2849 Fillmore street, once the home of Mayor Schmitz. The house was leased from F. A. Reiss, who holds a lease from the person who bought it from Mayor Schmitz. The house is located at the foot of the telephone side down which the United Railroads trolley cars come into the lower grades.

Under the arrangements already made by Elisor Biggy, the party will occupy the entire second floor, which includes four bedrooms, a bath and a lavatory, and the first floor consisting of a parlor, dining-room and kitchen. The first-mentioned suite will be used by Ruef and the lower floor by Elisor Biggy and the guards.

RUEF SATISFIED.
Ruef's meals will be served in his rooms. The boss, when told of the change, expressed his satisfaction at the same time saying he knew every foot of the place. Viewing the situation from the strict point of a jailer, the Elisor has fortified the place and selected all the strategic points from which a guard can at all times keep posted as to the approach of any person in whom there was supposed not to place any trust. There will be a guard all the time at the front door.

Until further notice West 1247 will be the number of the telephone which is to be placed on the floor used by Ruef. This will be for the use of the Elisor and Ruef.

HEAVY BILLS.
It has been just three weeks since Ruef was taken to the St. Francis Hotel, and two weeks since he was placed incommunicado. There seems to be a general satisfaction among the jailers to the change. The bills for the party since their stay at the swell hotel have not yet been made public, but they are threatening to be a heavy bill for the new era of reform and economy.

FRUITVALE RED MEN.
The tenth annual ball given by Ahwahnee Tribe, No. 66, I. O. O. E. M. W. at "Blackman's" hall, Crocker-Hartman building, March 15, proved to be a grand success, in spite of the bad weather. The grand march was started at 8:30 sharp and from then until midnight the young people made merry and enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The ball was a great success financially, as well as socially, and all present went home with the opinion that Ahwahnee Tribe is a great factor in their home town, socially as well as fraternally.

Those on the floor committee were E. T. Lennox, L. J. Finley, F. L. Fiest, J. A. Medina and P. Kreig. The tribe takes especial pride in their dance team, which has long been acknowledged the banner team of the county. The walls of their wigwam being decorated with many trophies won by them in competitive drills. Although the team has only a local reputation, it is soon expected to be ranked among the best in the State, having accepted a challenge from the Iroquois team of Stockton, which is ranked as one of the best teams in California.

The competition was to take place March 30, in the hunting grounds of the Stockton team, but, owing to the recent floods, it is postponed until the latter part of April. Many chiefs from all parts of the State are to be present, some of the tribes going in a body.

Special rate tickets on the Santa Fe can be procured from Ahwahnee Tribe, who have chartered several cars for the occasion.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.
David A. Gatto, 29, and Pauline Ivola, 31, both of Black Diamond; Peter Ghio, 21, and Rose Scott, 20, both of Berkeley; Leroy W. Jackson, 41, and Susan M. Gladning, 26, both of Oakland; August Poulter, 27, and Johanna Gordon, 22, both of Oakland; Max Wolf, 20, Independence, and Johanna de Pass, 24, Oakland; Peter Heydorn, 63, and Elizabeth Trest, 48, both of Stockton; Joseph L. Varga, 22, and Max A. Lawrence, 20, both of Hayward; Harry E. Taylor, 31, Cincinnati, and Lillie Frieschman, 22, Los Angeles; Ralph E. Paul, 22, Oakland, and Gusie Henriksen, 22, Selma.

NO BANK ACCOUNT.
William Mead, the Los Angeles banker, was the next to be quizzed. "Did the Home Telephone and Electric Company or any of its members have an account with your bank?" he was asked.

"Not one."

"Did any individual connected with the company have deposits in your bank?" "Not one," was his emphatic reply. "Our bank had absolutely no dealings with the Independent Telephone Company of Los Angeles."

"Are you connected with any telephone company bearing that name?" "Yes, I am connected with the Independent Telephone Company that is operating in Oregon and Washington. This company is doing business in Spokane, Seattle and Portland. While the name is the same as that of the company here under discussion, it is not related to it in any way."

KNEW NOTHING.
"I was really surprised to be called before the Grand Jury relative to this case," he added. "I know absolutely nothing bearing on the issue involved in this bribery case. Of course I do not blame the jury for summoning me, for they seem to be on a warm scent, but in my case it was futile."

Mead's statement is not borne out by the evidence. It is said that when the Independent established its business in Portland it announced that it was allied with the Home Telephone Company of Los Angeles. Its apparatus was identical and its employees interchangeable, several solicitors being detached from Los Angeles and sent to the northern cities.

DIRECTOR MORGAN.
Percy T. Morgan, a director of the Pacific States Company, was also familiar with the Home Telephone Company and gave his testimony with readiness. He refused to say, however, that his opposition to the Home Company led him to the jury room voluntarily.

T. S. Parkhurst of the Empire Construction Company of Oakland, and Nicholas Prendergast of the same company, and who is also a director of the Home Telephone Company across the bay, were examined in relation to deposits and withdrawals of funds from the Oakland banks. It is believed that important testimony relative to the course of the Home Telephone Company of Oakland was obtained from them, but Detective Burns declares that no matter what is unearthed by the Grand Jury here, no evidence will be turned over to the Alameda district attorney's office unless requested.

WITNESSES CALLED.
Percy T. Morgan, president of the California Wine Association and director of the Pacific States Telephone Company; W. C. Patterson, president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles; T. H. GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES

Elaborate Preparations Made by All the Churches for Their Observance.

With solemn ceremonies the last of the Wednesday's Lenten services was brought to a close last night, when all the churches held devotional exercises and attended their souls to prayer. The services were very impressive. Today the church commemorates the institution of the Lord at the last supper. From the earliest ages Holy Thursday was observed with great solemnity, and at Rome it was regarded as one of the primitive feasts, ranking next to Easter Sunday and Pentecost. Throughout the middle ages the tradition was retained.

HIGH MASS TODAY. High mass is being celebrated today with hymns of music and the display of rich vestments, as upon the feast of Christ's nativity, for this festival surpasses all save the feast of the Holy Trinity.

After the mass the blessed sacrament is borne in procession to the altar of repose, where it is reverently placed on the day when the church commemorates the death of the Saviour. In order to reproduce as faithfully as possible the Last Supper where the Lord first entered the Holy Sacrament of the new law, in the midst of his apostles, only one mass is celebrated in each church and at this mass the Holy Communion is administered to all the communicants, who have been excluded from the church on Ash Wednesday, were reconciled.

IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES. Celebrations for Holy Week at St. Francis de Sales church are as follows: High mass this morning at 9 o'clock with the mass of Reposition. The celebrant was Rev. Father Thomas McSwaney, deacon, Father M. Clifford; sub-deacon, Father O'Donnell, master of ceremonies, Father Clifford. A special Mass of Reposition precedes the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, which continues throughout Thursday and concludes Friday morning at the mass of the pre-sanctified.

FOR GOOD FRIDAY. Services on Good Friday consist of veneration of the cross in the morning. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be the ceremonial of "Stations of the Cross" and a sermon. Services of Our Lord by Father Clifford.

TRINITY CHURCH. At Trinity church this morning high

WORKS WONDERS A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Oakland testimony proves it.

CRISP NEWS FROM SAN FRANCISCO

AFTER HIS SHARE. Peter Siminoff, minor son of the late Morris Siminoff, capitalist, has, through his guardian, sued his step-mother, Emma, for the possession of certain property of the estate, which is large. Only $1000 was left to this son, but Siminoff executed a deed some time before his death, a condition precedent of which was that her stepson should be an equal sharer. It appears that Siminoff carried his property in the name of E. F. Pelaxotto.

THREE YEARS AGO. In 1904 Charles D. Taylor fell into a roadway hole at Fourteenth and Minna streets, as he was going along at night, and he broke a thigh bone and became a cripple for life. That spot was not lantern-lighted. Suits to recover $50,000 damages and $500 doctor's fees were instituted against the then board of public works, Marsden, president, and several surety companies were also made defendants in that action. Yesterday a jury in Judge Hunt's court awarded $2750 damages to Taylor.

IN OLD CHURCH. The restoration of the First Congregational church is so far advanced that on Easter Sunday Rev. George C. Adams, the pastor, will hold service there in the forenoon. In the evening Golden Gate Commandery No. 16, Knights Templar, John Bennett commander, will attend. The prelate of the commandery will occupy the pulpit with the pastor.

WHAT DABNER BOUGHT. The jewelry and revolver which Louis Dabner purchased after his murder of the Japanese banker, Munakata, with Sienssen, have become objects of a civil suit for possession by the partners of the murdered banker, M. and T. Shibata. They allege that after the murder and robbery Dabner bought the jewelry and weapon, and later pawned them. The ticket was seized by Chief Dinan, who now holds the goods.

FLY SCREEN LAW. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the proprietors of restaurants and fruit stores neglecting to comply with that ordinance of the board of supervisors providing that stores shall be protected by screens to keep out flies. The entire number of warrants for this offense already issued is more than 200.

ONE MAN THE JURY. A case arising from a raid on the resort at 418 Jackson street was decided by one jurymen, Charles Meyers, who alone remained of the panel. He retired and in fifteen minutes returned a not guilty verdict. This odd affair occurred yesterday in Judge Wells's court.

PLAN OF RIEHL. Maude A. Riehl was granted a divorce from George A. Riehl, a hat salesman, by Judge Graham. She told the court how Riehl left her in Los Gatos with a promise of sending for her within a month to come to him in Los Angeles. Instead he went to his father in San Jose and asked for money to "beat a divorce case." Riehl senior gave him funds to "get out of the country."

COIN FOR TEACHERS. President Lawrence F. Walsh of the board of education announced yesterday that in the next few days $40,000 would be disbursed to the teachers of the public schools of San Francisco. This money is due them for two weeks' back pay which was withheld last September.

TOOK HER JEWELS. Judge Conlan has held Harry M.

Stern for the Superior Court on a charge of grand larceny. He fixed the bail at $3000. Stern is accused by Elfrida von Frank of 1728 Steiner street of having stolen from her jewelry valued at $477. The theft occurred February 15.

SHENSON IS SUED. Browning, Tolle & Postel, wholesale liquor merchants, have brought suit for $15,900 damages against Robert Shenson, lately their landlord, who elected them from his premises on Market street, despite they had a long lease. Shenson is a butcher.

ADOPT A FOUNDLING. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stanton, of Manhattan, Nev., who have been guests at the Hotel St. Francis for three months, have adopted a boy baby, whose mother, a beautiful Danish girl, is now dead, and whose father was a partner, it is said, in a wholesale house of this city prior to the April fire. It is asserted the father abandoned the infant mother before the birth, and the infant has been a ward of a local asylum. Guests of the St. Francis have been impressed by the young one's resemblance to Stanton.

JUDGE MORROW'S TRIP. Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow is to depart for Europe today. His wife will go with him. He will have his eyes surgically treated at Monheim, Germany.

IN ASYLUM NOW. Mrs. Charlotte Parsons, said to be allied to Swedish royalty, has been committed to Napa Insane asylum. On Sunday she was wandering aimlessly about the vicinity of Clay and Webster streets. She had $125 in gold in her purse and other valuables, including an $80 bank check, cashable, and two safe deposit vault keys.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Oakland Circle, No. 266, Women of Woodcraft, will give a whist tournament on Saturday evening, March 30, at Woodmen Hall, 521 Twelfth street, for the benefit of a sick neighbor. The handsome prizes are on exhibition at the Metropolitan Furniture Store, 524 Twelfth street.

NATIONAL UNION.

Oakland Council, National Union, No. 973—Last Saturday night, March 23, the regular meeting was held, at which Pacific Council of San Francisco conducted the initiation services, which were very pretty and highly appreciated by a large attendance of members from Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda Councils, with a number of visitors from San Francisco, Chicago and Los Angeles.

On April 13 there will be an open meeting and smoker which all members of the National Union are requested to attend and bring their friends who may be interested in the order. We can assure them a very good time, as the program is an interesting one. The Oakland Council is on the boom and the "Boosters' Club" is rustling around for new applications.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

Whereas, The attention of the members of this lodge has been drawn to a dastardly attempt to destroy the home and presumably the family of one of our most esteemed citizens, the Hon. Frank B. Ogden, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, and

Whereas, The said Hon. Frank B. Ogden has lived in our midst and is prominently identified with fraternal measures, and has ever been to the fore in all efforts to improve his fellow-men, and to give aid and sympathy to those in need; therefore be it

Resolved, That Albin Lodge, No. 206, Sons of St. George, do hereby extend their sincere sympathy to the said Hon. Frank B. Ogden and the members of his family, and while they congratulate them on their escape from bodily injury, they sincerely trust that the perpetrators of this dastardly outrage will be brought to justice; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Hon. Frank B. Ogden, and also spread on the minutes of this lodge.

FOREST CIRCLE.

Foresta Circle, No. 515, Women of Woodcraft, will give a whist tournament on Tuesday evening, April 2, at Oakland. Tuesday evening, April 2, Neighbor John Nethercott, as chairman of the committee, ably assisted by Neighbors Dr. Minnie Pruitt, Maude Hendrick, Myrtle Pettigrew, Wamsley, Mary Schuler, and Mollie Myers, have charge of the affair and are working hard to make it a success. Twelve useful and beautiful articles are offered as prizes, also a door prize. Come and bring your friends.

Foresta Circle, with Guardian Neighbor Jennie Claidie presiding, held a very interesting meeting at their last regular session. Applications are coming in at every meeting and new members are instructed in the mysteries of woodcraft at every meeting. After the regular business was over a social hour was enjoyed by everyone present.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

One of the most enjoyable, interesting and instructive sessions ever held by Live Oak Lodge, No. 17, K. of P., was enjoyed last Wednesday evening. The Knight rank (long form) was duly and impressively conferred upon Esquire Sydney G. Olsen, C. C., C. A. Balantyne and fellow officers performing their work in an exceptionally fine manner, the same being very satisfactory to the lodge.

Upon the closing of the lodge the members and visiting brothers retired to the banquet room where a splendid supper was enjoyed, after which a program consisting of music, speeches and wit was greatly enjoyed. The entire supreme domain was represented and the responses were many and were instructive.

Next Wednesday evening strangers C. E. Burgess and F. M. Wilson will be initiated into the mysteries and impressive lessons of the rank of Page and all brother Knights are cordially invited to attend.

A proposition to amend the by-laws by raising the initiation fee to $35 was received and read for the first hearing. Many applications are forthcoming and without doubt the present term will be one of the most successful ever enjoyed by old Live Oak Lodge.

BEN HUR COURT.

Even though the weather was very unfavorable last Friday evening, there was quite a large attendance at Ben Hur Court, No. 12, to witness the presenting of the beautiful State prize banner to Court 12. Brother Foster, of Oakland Court No. 6, in behalf of the supreme officers, presented the flag with a few well chosen words of congratulation to the members for winning the flag, through securing the most members of any Ben Hur Court in the State during the last six months of 1906.

Sister M. Bray, chief, and R. G. Marquardt, past chief of Court 12, responded in a very pleasing manner. Arthur Windom gave a couple of recitations. Refreshments were served, followed by after-dinner talks and music.

FOREST CAMP.

The spirit of growth and boosting that has at last settled in Oakland must be contagious. For Forest Camp, No. 102, Woodmen of the World, has caught the disease. If disease it can be called, applications coming in regularly and the pleasant task of initiating new members goes merrily on. Our jolly lot of wood-choppers are quite enthusiastic over the camp and the work, and come out in goodly numbers, let the weather be wet or dry.

The members will see something new and very impressive in the history and work next Monday evening, even if it is April 1. Better be on hand.

The new social committee of Ison square expects to give the boys a fine entertainment some time in April. If they don't, the clerks and rest of the members will give them the hal ha!

UNITED WORKMEN.

Despite the incessant rainfall there was a good attendance at Oak Leaf Lodge, No. 25, on Monday night. The second degree was conferred. Special Deputy Carr presiding. The amplified form was used, which made the initiation impressive. Two applications were presented.

The theater night at Idora Park April 1 is occupying the attention of the boys in the lodge in conjunction with Pacific, No. 7. Many tickets have been disposed of, which entitles the holder to a reserved seat after April 10 if taken to Sherrill & Clay's. John Coats, P. M. W., made his usual excellent report, having visited several lodges and found them all prosperous.

The contest between Pacific and Oak Leaf lodges for the most members of July 1 is becoming more interesting every day. Next week Oak Leaf will visit Redwood Lodge in compliance with an invitation extended some time ago. A delightful evening is assured.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

The Illinois Society held its regular monthly meeting at Forester's Hall last Tuesday evening, March 25. The interest of the society is steadily growing from the fact of the increasing number present over previous meetings.

Some of the pleasing features of the evening were recitations by Miss Adelaide Phillips, addresses by Mr. Sharp of Kings county, and Arthur R. Briggs, formerly of Chicago, now president of the California State Board of Trade. Mr. Briggs spoke of Illinois as he remembered it in its former days and the great progress the State had made from that time. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance and one of the most social times of the season was in evidence. The gentlemen have offered to serve lunch at the next meeting, which is an entirely new feature with this organization. For this the ladies are thanking Mr. File of Berkeley.

WOODMEN OF WORLD.

Athens Camp, No. 45, W. O. W., at its regular meeting on Wednesday evening, March 22, its regular business, taking up social entertainment, owing to the fraternal visit of Forest Camp, which attended in a body of thirty neighbors. During the evening Captain Gansu was presented with a handsome ring, inscribed with the neighbors with choice words in reward for his hard work in securing fifteen new neighbors since January 1. Neighbors Hughes, Jefferson, Phillips and Woodman of Forest Camp made very interesting talks, while Neighbors Whitehead and Rogers of Forest Camp delighted the neighbors with choice vocal and instrumental pieces. Several neighbors of Athens Camp replied in a happy frame of mind.

As a grand finale to the evening's entertainment Athens Camp's drill team took the floor and displayed their fancy movements. The team is rapidly coming to the front under the leadership of Captain Gansu.

CONCORDIA LODGE.

Concordia Lodge, German Rebekahs, I. O. O. F., transacted considerable business last Saturday night and had a good attendance. The main object was to make suitable preparations to receive the grand president of the order, Sister Jessie Fargo, who will make an official and fraternal visit to that lodge next Saturday evening. Their hall being rather small for such a festive occasion, Oakland Lodge No. 16 has kindly consented to give the use of its spacious hall to the German Rebekahs, and No. 18 will occupy the German hall on the third floor in the Macabean temple. Members of the lodge and sister lodges are kindly invited to be present and assist to give our executive a rousing welcome.

PRIDE OF THE FOREST.

At the last meeting of Pride of the Forest Circle No. 122, C. O. F., several candidates were initiated and an application for membership were received. After disposing of the business of the evening, refreshments were served, and dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when all departed for their homes, proclaiming it to be one of the most pleasant evening that they had spent in a long while.

BENEFIT WHIST.

Oakland Circle No. 266, W. O. W., will give a benefit whist tournament on Saturday evening, March 3, at Woodman hall, for the benefit of a sick neighbor in distress. It being a worthy cause, the public and members of the order are earnestly requested to attend.

Neighbor A. B. Maker, chairman, with an able corps of workers, is exerting his influence to make it a success. Seventeen beautiful prizes will be awarded the lucky ones, consisting of cut glass, hand painted china, silver, pictures and plants. The prizes are on exhibition at the Metropolitan Furniture Company's store on Tenth street, and are an elegant set. Be sure and attend and assist a worthy cause.

ABBIT INVIDIA.

Tuesday evening Abbit Invidia Rebekah Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., held a most enthusiastic meeting at its hall in Macabean temple, the occasion being the election of three delegates to the grand lodge, which holds forth in annual convention in the city of Los Angeles in May next, when a large delegation will leave here on a special train.

The delegates elected were Sister Della B. Abbey, Annie Carl and Pauline Messenger. The floor was then cleared and dancing was indulged in. Next Tuesday there will be an initiation. Visiting Rebekahs are always welcome.

DAUGHTERS OF ST. GEORGE.

Golden Gate Lodge No. 78 has about completed its plans for a grand ball and whist party to be given at Kluncker hall, Fifty-ninth and San Pablo avenue, Friday evening, April 5. The dance will be given in the large hall and the whist party in the lodge room. Excellent music is to be provided for the dancers, and for the whist players pretty and useful prizes.

Our grand district deputy, Sister Annie Rogers, visited the lodge last Friday evening, and installed Sister Lester as president. Sister Fraser having resigned from that chair. Notwithstanding the stormy evening, there was a good attendance, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

ORDER OF WASHINGTON.

Oakland Union No. 277 continues in the lead of the bay unions. On last Friday evening, notwithstanding the storm, it held its regular meeting with a goodly attendance. Seven new applications were read and it was announced that at the next meeting, Friday, March 29, a class of twelve would be initiated, which, no doubt, will bring out a large portion of the membership.

The meeting will be held in K. of P. hall, corner of Twelfth and Alice streets. Visiting comrades are cordially invited to attend. After the meeting, refreshments will be served by the daughters of Washington at the Claremont restaurant. Supreme Secretary J. L. Mitchell, who has just returned from the city of Atlanta, Georgia, reports the order in a flourishing condition in that jurisdiction.

ODD FELLOWS.

Fountain Lodge No. 198, I. O. O. F., will confer the second degree on a number of candidates at the next meeting, April 1, and every member of the team is requested to report as early as possible. The lodge is making a good record for the term, having work almost every meeting.

Last Monday, after conferring the first degree, receiving reports from various committees, and electing an applicant for membership, the following past grands were elected representatives to the grand lodge, which will meet in Los Angeles in May: John Tisch, J. R. Maiser and J. Mohr.

Accidents on American Railroads.

Railroad service in the United States is more hazardous than any similar service in the world. Each year the roll of the killed and wounded is larger than the total losses of both sides at the battle of Gettysburg.

The reason is not far to seek. The doctrine of non-liability of an employer for death or injury caused by the acts or negligence of a fellow servant has been elaborated and carried to such an extreme by the courts that the railroads find it cheaper to kill men than to provide safety appliances. Where this doctrine does obtain in all its inhuman nakedness the railroads have adopted the device of making parents, wives, mothers, sons and daughters—the next of kin—sign a release of claim for damage in case of death or injury to the employee.

Being divested by the courts and by the ingenuity of their legal advisers of financial responsibility for killing and maiming their employees, the railroad corporations save the expense of providing safety appliances and regulations intended to prevent accident which increase the cost of operation. The railroads are only concerned about the safety of passengers. As they can kill employees with impunity, they waste neither thought nor consideration on their safety.

Each year there will be the same long and horrible record of slaughters andcrippings till the courts take the view that human life is more precious than money and that contracts which absolve employers from liability for criminal neglect are void as being against public policy. The contracts are simply a license to commit murder.

All the colored troops have been ordered to the Philippines. No doubt the President would like to order Senator Foraker to go with them.

"Every dog has his day" is not street slang," says the Pasadena Star, "but descended to us from Shakespeare himself." Shakespeare used all the current slang of his day in his plays, and misspelled them atrociously. Yet his genius so captured the world of letters that it made it pure English. He also twisted words out of their accepted meaning and his very blunders have been accepted as good usage by etymologists, grammarians and lexicographers. The slang of one generation is the correct speech of another. It is idiomatic, epigrammatic, expressive, and is the germ of growth and development in language. When any spoken tongue ceases to breed slang and to translate it from the vernacular to the dictionary and cyclopedia that tongue ceases to be elastic and progressive, and becomes confined to set forms which forbid free expression; it is in its decrepitude and preparing to take its place among the dead languages.

A San Francisco newspaper says the boodling Supervisors will be allowed to hold their jobs as long as they obey orders. Gradually the public is getting informed as to the methods and seat of power in government by indictment, which appears to be something different from punishing crime and ousting criminals from office.

Revival of Smelting at Keswick.

The reopening of the Mountain Copper Company's smelter at Keswick is an event of much interest to Shasta county and to California generally. This smelting plant, which is the largest in the State, was shut down about two years ago, chiefly because of unfriendly litigation growing out of the evil effects of the smelter's fumes on orchards and other plant life for a distance of approximately twenty miles from the smoke stacks of the works. The suits brought to abate the nuisance and to recover damages went against the company, and it shut down the smelter and erected a new one near Martinez, whence the ore extracted from the mine was transported by rail for a special form of treatment. It has been represented that the results obtained at the Martinez smelter have not been altogether satisfactory, hence the resumption of operations on the old plant.

When the big smelter at Keswick, which gave employment to about one thousand men, was closed down, that little industrial foothill town was practically wiped off the map, as it owed its birth and existence solely to the establishment there of the Mountain Copper Company's reduction works. The rekindling of the furnace fires and the resumption of smelting means the revival of Keswick.

As the Federal government became interested in the desolation of the forests swept by the fumes of the smelter when it was in operation before, it is presumed that the company has provided against the recurrence of the evil by attaching a plant to the works which will precipitate from the smoke, before it emerges from the stack, the arsenical and sulphurous fumes which caused all the damage before to neighboring property. It was admitted in the trial of the damage suits that this could be done; but, at that time, the company was indisposed to suspend operations or to spend the money necessary for its installation, although a market existed for these by-products.

The Mountain Copper Company is the biggest mining property in the State. It has been adding from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 annually to the wealth of Shasta county and to the mineral output of California for several years past. The rekindling of the Keswick furnaces means, of course, a resumption of operations at the mine on a scale quite as extensive, if not more extensive, than before, with no prospect of future interference, if the necessary precautions have been taken against the revival of the old cause of complaint. If this should prove to be the case the revival of operations at the Keswick smelters should be hailed with general satisfaction, for it is damaging to the whole State to have such a vast industrial plant and valuable property hampered in its operations.

COLONIZATION NOT A GOOD POLICY.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In a recent editorial you state that "the San Francisco Chronicle compares Japan's colonizing methods with our own to our disfavor."

It is high time to ask if there is one sane, honest, intelligent American who has taken time to reflect on the subject who desires to see the United States follow the example of Japan, or even England, in the "colonizing business."

SPRING STYLES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

You very rightly declare that "this business is one we should keep out of, more especially when it is mixed up with conquest, religious proselytism, speculative exploitation and race assimilation."

It is doubtful if a sentence more replete with sound common sense was ever printed in any newspaper in this republic than this last sentence of yours. Yet you go on to say that "the Chronicle is wrong in assuming that republics are not fitted for colonizing work."

For some republics possibly you are right, but if you desire to imply that this republic can be benefited by the "colonizing business" upon your own argument the soundness of your conclusion may well be questioned, because no republic has ever entered upon colonization that has not been irresistibly dragged into "conquest, religious proselytism, speculative exploitation and race assimilation."

You cite Greece and Rome as brilliant examples of successful colonization. Yet no truth in history is more patent than the corruption and downfall of these two great republics growing out of their futile efforts to incorporate incongruous foreign colonies into the body politic.

Every effort of this republic to colonize so far has put a weak link in the chain of the republic's power. If her experiments in this direction are carried further her experience will be that of Greece and Rome.

Greece, Rome, England and Japan were all governments with small territorial boundaries and possibly they were compelled to colonize in order to lengthen their precarious lease of existence. Yet glorious little Switzerland lives on, and if she peacefully continues her attention to the best interests of her own people in the future as she has in the past, skillfully avoiding all entangling alliances and scorning all iridescent dreams of power through colonizing schemes, she may possibly live on and prosper when the "New Zealander stands upon the crumbling arch of London bridge" and Japan lies crushed into insignificance between the upper and nether millstones of her colonial mills.

We once bid fair to be the greater peaceful Switzerland of the world; the eternal Republic, before whom the world would willingly bow, as the beneficent friend of every oppressed people to whom our kind services could possibly be rendered. In an evil hour we undertook race assimilation, peaceful colonization and finally conquest, and already some astute statesmen believe they can hear the roar of dangerous breakers ahead. Certainly we are getting into stormy seas and there are ominous signs of mutiny on board.

There is no excuse in our case. We are no island empire, such as England or Japan. "No pent up Utica is ours." We have contiguous territory enough to absorb the well directed energies of a larger population than that of China. We could have become the Great White Man's Republic, ready and able to help the world, or to defy and smile at its efforts should its combined powers attempt to destroy us.

It is not too late yet, but the subject is too vast for the limited space your liberal paper can grant to even a far abler writer.

R. O. WHITEHEAD.

THE NEW LIFE.

Perhaps they laughed at Dante in his youth.
Told him that truth
Had unappealably been said
In the great masterpieces of the dead.
Perhaps he listened, and but bowed his head
In acquiescent honor, while his heart
Held natal tidings; that a new life is the part
Of every man that's born—
A new life never lived before,
And a new expectant art.
It is the variations of the morn
That are forever, more and more,
The single dawning of the single truth:
So answers Dante to the heart of youth.

COMPARATIVE COLOR-BLINDNESS.

If one thousand men gaze at a garden of flowers, fifty of them will see the colors falsely. If one thousand women view them, nine hundred and ninety-six or seven will perceive the hues correctly. Of the six colors of the rainbow which, mingled in thousands of combinations, give all the varying hues of sky and sea, of mountain and valley, some are never seen by the color-blind, or are felt only as light and shade of black and white. Very few persons are totally color-blind, yellow, blue and violet being rarely lost. To the totally color-blind all landscapes and objects are like an engraving in black and white.—Century.

Should Death End All?

This is not a theological question; it is rather a broad and bitter question. Should the death of a man end all the comfort of a family; the education of his children; the existence of his home? If such be not the case it is because the average plain man has given this matter thought, and, at the expense of present enjoyment, has provided for future needs.

TRIBUNE TROPHY TOURNEY IS BOOMING

Of the attempt to discover who has the very nicest arm among the women of Alameda county, one who is of that sex writes to this daily newspaper: "I am following with close regard your essay to get the prettiest arm in this county reproduced in your columns.

"I would like to enter that competition, but my arm is too slender and angular. Age is not considered in your 'tourney,' you say, so my being thirty-six would make no difference. I think a fine arm, that is, one that tapers exquisitely, is one of the loveliest sights imaginable. Of course, an arm viewed in its natural state has to be daintily shaded in purest flesh color in order to give the most perfect effect, even where the contour is uniformly symmetrical. Your idea to have the arm exposed to the shoulder in your specimens is excellent.

"When I was at school abroad, the pupils were addressed one day, by a member of the faculty who spoke on art. I recall that he said that the most graceful, most superb vision of a human figure, with a female as the subject, was when head, neck, shoulders and arms, clear to the fingers' ends, were nude presented. He also referred to drapery of classic arrangement as being a more imposing set-off to such display of charms than would a costume of conventional design, no matter how costly it might be. But I must not wander on farther; suffice it for me to remark that I think THE TRIBUNE is to be complimented for seeking to assemble the really sweetest arms in the county. Your collection, when your show is over, ought to be worthy of a special album—I mean scrap book survival, for there will surely be many contrasting types, and it will be a pleasure as well as instructive to scrutinize them all."

In an epistle received from a San Francisco artist this information is supplied: "I take it you are after style of pose—genre—

DAUGHTER OF PROFESSOR WILL GO ON THE STAGE

Is Beginning at Bottom of the Work

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Edna Barbour, daughter of Prof. E. L. Barbour, of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., will make the stage her life work. The young woman is pretty and accomplished.

She is a graduate of a New York dramatic school, and for the past few months has been obtaining experience with small companies on the road before finally making up her mind whether or not to follow the profession regularly. She has decided to do so and will have a minor part in a production about to go on the road.

YOUNG LADY TO CONDUCT CRUSADE AGAINST SMOKE

Desires to Regulate Chicago Smudge

CHICAGO, March 25.—Having just returned from a trip to New York, Miss Theresa Hirschl, daughter of Andrew J. Hirschl, a prominent member of the bar here, announces that she is willing to join the staff of Chief Smoke Inspector John C. Schubert and help bring into court violators of the law whose chimneys make a smudge of Chicago's sky-line.

Miss Hirschl declares that the difference between New York and this city in regard to the smoke nuisance has made her thoroughly ashamed of the neglect of the local officials who allow

Chicago to be continually smoke begrimed. "If New York or any other city can be clean," she says, "Chicago can be clean also. There is very little excuse for the smoke evil here. We women are the chief sufferers, as the smoke ruins our gowns and spoils our complexion. We spend thousands of dollars a year keeping our clothes clean and the men do not seem to care."

The enthusiastic young woman is willing to serve as a smoke inspector without pay and it is likely that the offer of her services will be accepted. She is a graduate of the University of Chicago and has a host of friends on the south side.

SAYS ARTICLE REFLECTS ON MANY WORKING WOMEN

"Kisses Sold at $5 Each" Is All "Rot."

Editor TRIBUNE: It is with regret and, I beg even to say, disgust, that I read the article entitled "Kisses Sold at $5 Each," in your Sunday supplement. Many of the remarks in this article reflect most seriously on working women in general, stenographers in particular, and just as much on the average business man, for whom the respect of the working woman is often increased rather than diminished by contact in store or office. All the stenographers who read this article know how false its tone is. So do the business men who employ them. But the casual reader, unfamiliar from this stuff that is injurious in the extreme to the reputation of many an honest and high-minded girl and man.

I am a stenographer of several years' experience, and have had occasion to work in a good many different offices, changing my position always to take one where the chances for advancement were better. I have never had the least difficulty in securing employment, and have never failed to secure one where I applied, except in one or two cases where the reason was obviously not personal. Yet I have never been offered what any well-bred woman would consider an insult, either in word, look or action, either when I first accepted a position or after having been in the same office for several months. I have held very good and remunerative positions with several concerns in distinctly different lines of business, and always have held these solely by virtue of what skill I have as a stenographer.

Miss McChesney is entirely wrong in her tenet that the girl's attitude plays no part in this question. It is a common saying that "every man knows a lady when he sees one," and successful business and professional men certainly are not fools. Doubtless there are stenographers who, like some of their sisters in various lines of work and in every class of society, are not ladies, but I have observed that the most serious and industrious stenographers of my acquaintance are the ones who hold the best positions.

First class business men have no time to flirt, and, if they had spent their hours in this way, would never have reached the position they occupy, and everyone knows both girls and men in business whose very looks and general conduct belie the imputations in Miss McChesney's statements. What she says is "rot." She is either a human vampire, or, which is more likely, no such person ever existed, and the idea is the figment of some sensational writer's brain who can find no better subject to contemplate than the wanton tampering with the reputation of countless scores of persons better occupied than that same writer.

In fairness, I consider that you should print these lines by one who knows whereof she speaks from her own experience and that of many other girls of her personal acquaintance. I am not beautiful. Neither have I ever been told that I am a fright. However, that may be, no business man has ever asked me to kiss him, but several have, none the less, willingly paid me well for efficient services as a stenographer.

Yours very respectfully,
AN OAKLAND GIRL.

GIVES UP HER HUSBAND FOR LEGACY OF $50,000

Insists Other Women Would Do Same

CHICAGO, March 25.—Mrs. Olive Russell Burns, with the divorce court as the agent in the case, has just traded an unsatisfactory husband for $50,000. The divorce of a husband or a legacy was presented to her in the will of her father, who, disapproving of her choice, left her the money on condition that she marry a man of his choice.

Her father also instructed that Mrs. Burns should give up the stage, though his legacy was not dependent on this. The sacrifice of her helpmate has, however, been all that she was willing to make. She declares, after a rest in the South, she will take up her theatrical career again.

"Ninety-five per cent of the women in Chicago would sell their husbands for $50,000," remarked Mrs. Burns, succinctly, "but art is different."

STAR FOOTBALL PLAYING WINS HEART AND HAND

Cupid Is Mascot at Gridiron Battle

WORCESTER, Mass., March 25.—A romance that culminated in a secret marriage at Albany several months ago and which has just leaked out had its beginning on the gridiron here. The principals are Edward L. McManus Jr., of Natick, and Susanne Wadsworth, Harris, daughter of William Harris, of Northville, N. Y., a State Senator.

At the beginning of the 1905 game between Harvard freshmen and Worcester Academy, McManus, the star tackle of the latter team, was out because of an injury to his knee. In the game his substitute weakened, and in spite of the protests of his doctor McManus took his place, playing a whirlwind game, which helped the Worcester team to the first victory over Harvard in nine years.

Miss Harris was attracted by McManus' spectacular playing, and after the game they were introduced. Last Christmas vacation they slipped away to Albany and were married by the Rev. Father Burke.

MEN LEAVE COUNTY AND WEDDING BELLS CEASE

Issue No Marriage Licenses This Year

STROUDSBURG, March 25.—Not a single marriage license has been issued in Pike county this year. Clergy, court officials and justices of the peace are anxious to get at the bottom of the trouble, and, if possible, correct conditions which may be responsible.

A newspaper man announces that Pike county girls want to be June brides, do not take to winter weddings, and predicts that all will come out right. Another solution is that the young fellows are leaving the county to find work.

Much is expected from Representative Martin, the newly elected Republican member from Pike. Martin, before election, referred frequently to Pike's slowness. He promised better things in the event of his election.

HOW TO USE SCRAPBOOKS; ONE FOR EACH SUBJECT

Keep the Classes Separate in Books

To keep clippings where they can be found readily it is a good idea to have several cheap scrapbooks, devoting one to each subject. One book may be used for recipes; a second for games and entertainments; garden hints may take a third; lamp-work suggestions another. One with poetry, or another with funny sayings and pictures, may brighten some hours for an invalid. A strong manila envelope should be pasted in each book, where the clippings may be filed, when cut out, until there is an opportunity to paste them in the book.

there was an improvised altar of roses, carnations and greens.

The marriage service was read by the Rev. Barnhart and the bride's only attendant was little Miriam Wands, the ring bearer.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white silk mull over taffeta with a veil and carried a shower of roses. Her only ornament was a handsome necklace, the gift of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Biers have gone South on a honeymoon-trip and will return to make their home in this city.

NEWS FROM BERKELEY AND CITY OF ALAMEDA

HARRY THAW EXAMINED BY LUNACY COMMISSION

Prisoner Is Willing to Submit to a Private Inquiry, State His Attorneys.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The commission in lunacy appointed by Justice Fitzgerald of the Supreme Court to inquire into the present mental condition of Harry K. Thaw, held its first public session this afternoon in the courtroom where the Thaw trial has been in progress since January 23. The commissioners took their places upon the judge's bench shortly after 2 p. m.

Thaw was brought before the commission immediately and took a place directly in front of the commissioners. He was accompanied by all of his counsel. District Attorney Jerome and Assistant District Attorney Garvan were present, as provided by law.

Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw was present as were the defendant's brothers, Josiah and Edward Thaw.

Clifford W. Hattis, who acted as senior counsel before the commission, announced that Thaw was ready to submit to a personal examination by the commission but suggested that it be private and he could give his present state of mind.

Chairman McClure then announced that any mental or physical examination of Thaw would be private.

Chairman McClure added that he did not think an elaborate hypothetical examination would be deemed necessary.

Chairman McClure said the inquiry the commission had in mind was a simple one—to determine whether at this time the defendant is capable of understanding the proceedings against him and of rationally advising his counsel.

Chairman McClure said the commission had decided not to take into consideration the conflicting affidavits submitted to Justice Fitzgerald.

When District Attorney Jerome was asked if he was ready to proceed he declared he was not. His medical advisers were not present and in the absence of definite knowledge of what today's proceedings might be he had not summoned any witnesses. Commissioner Olin interrupted Mr. Jerome to ask if he had any objection to the commission proceeding forthwith to examine Thaw.

"I have no objection," providing my cross examination of the defendant may be postponed until I can consult with my medical advisers," he replied.

"We will arrange to have him come to the court," said Chairman McClure. The courtroom was cleared of all persons except the commission, the defendant and his counsel and the district attorney and his assistant and the examination of Thaw was taken up in executive session.

The Thaw lunacy commission adjourned at 4:50 until Saturday at 10:15 a. m.

DEAF MUTE TALKS AFTER REACHING COURTROOM

Shows Judge Hole in His Head That Causes Occasional Loss of Speech.

BERKELEY, March 28.—"How could I beg when I couldn't talk?" asked Louis Willis, a vagrant who before Justice of the Peace Edgar the other day in the Berkeley court.

He had been arrested on the charge of vagrancy, for the college town police caught him in the act of peddling shoe strings, and to increase the sales of his wares, he had a large placard attached to him reading "I am deaf and dumb" and "Help the needy." All these signs were held in the courtroom safe, to be introduced as people's exhibits when the supposedly deaf mute came up for trial.

After being in the custody of Chief of Police Vollmer for several days, Willis was called into court. During his stay in the jail he had not passed a word. When the jailer passed him the menu he pointed with his thumb to the course he desired. Francis O'Donnald, the deaf and dumb home teacher, was called to the court room and sworn in as an interpreter to translate the trial proceedings for the mute.

"I CAN TALK."

Interpreter O'Donnald began on his fingers to read the information against Willis, when to the surprise of the court and those present the defendant said in husky tones "I can talk."

"I ain't deaf and dumb," blurted out the prisoner when the information was read.

"How could I beg when I couldn't talk?" The court asked for an explanation of the circumstances and Willis told a touching tale.

"A brick wall fell on me one time and sometimes I cannot talk or hear. The bricks made a hole in my head," began the defendant, but the court looked doubtful.

"When Thomas doubt'd Christ, the savior asked him to place his hand on the hole in his side to thrust his hand through the wound. He did it and found that Christ did not lie," continued Willis.

Now judge, you thrust your hand on the top of my head and see if I am not speaking the truth."

FOUND A HOLE.

Justice Edgar examined Willis' head and found there was a hole on the top of the skull, for a brick wall. The Berkeley physician, who was consulted on the matter, declared that Willis may have illusions at times and is unable to speak or hear and his imagination, caused by the injury, would cause him to lose control of the two senses temporarily.

Willis was turned loose provided he would stay outside the limits of the college town where they are void of tramps and loafers faking the unsuspecting public.

OAKLAND NEWS DEALER DEAD

William Young Dies During Night at His Boarding House in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, March 28.—William Young, who was employed in the news stand at the corner of First street and Broadway in Oakland, was found dead in his bed at the home of George Shreve at 1806 Santa Clara avenue yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Young had been rooming at the Shreve residence for a number of months. It was his custom to remain in bed until a late hour and it was not until a maid went to make up the bed that it was discovered that he had died.

It is believed that death was due to natural causes. Young had been complaining for some time over ill health and was not a strong man. He was about 40 years of age. Little is known of his antecedents. An autopsy will be held.

The dance is given as a regular fund-raising for the dance music. Between dances the students will introduce vaudeville turns which they promise will be unique and pleasing.

NO NEWS OF MISSING GIRL

Strange Disappearance of Portuguese Girl Still Alarms Her Relatives

RICHMOND, March 28.—No news has been received by the family of Miss Minnie Silva of her whereabouts and there still remains the same mystery as to the cause of her not having been heard from during the last six weeks.

The sister who was making a search of this city for the missing girl was Miss Geraldine Silva and not Mrs. Julia Salvadore of North Oakland. Mrs. Salvadore has been an invalid for more than a month and not able to leave her house.

The missing girl left for this place six weeks ago to take a position as maid in a hotel. It was her custom to write or go to her home not less than once a week. A single line has been written or has anyone who knew her been able to give the girl's relatives a clue as to her whereabouts.

Miss Silva was petite, rather staid and twenty-one years old. She has brown hair, brown eyes and wears glasses. Her mother, Mrs. Rita Silva, lives at Centerville.

BIG SHIP IS REPORTED LOST

Vessel Having Aboard 183 People Is Said to Be Missing.

ST. JOHNS, N. T., March 28.—The steamship Greenland, with 183 men on board is reported lost off the Newfoundland coast. The vessel was engaged in the seal fisheries, broke her main shaft last Saturday and during raging blizzard on Sunday was driven seaward and has not since been seen by the other vessels of the fleet.

Word of the probable disaster was brought here by the sealing steamer Grand Lake. According to Captain Kneas of the Greenland after the breaking of the vessel's shaft, attempted to induce the master of the steamer Diana to take one hundred of the crew on board as the vessel was insufficient to hold the crew. The Greenland disappeared soon afterward. Shipping men are unanimous in the opinion that the helpless Greenland could not live in such weather as has prevailed since the breaking of her shaft. She was unusually high. With her shaft broken she was absolutely helpless. Any attempt of the crew to seek safety in small boats would have been hopeless. Mariners hold that the ship is lost and that all on board have gone down.

STUDENTS TO STUDY MINES

Seniors of Berkeley Will Leave on Special Train for Tonopah.

BERKELEY, March 28.—The senior students of the University leave tonight on a special train for Tonopah, Nevada, where they will make a study of the mines in that section and their practical working as well as the geology of the surrounding territory.

Fifty men will be in the party and they will occupy special sleepers chartered for the trip. The students will sleep in the those cars during their stay at the mines. California banners will decorate the sides of the cars.

The Tonopah chamber of commerce has made arrangements so that the students will have free access to all the mines and mills of the camp. Four days will be spent in the actual geological investigations and the remainder of the time will be spent in the mines.

The miners expect to play a game of baseball with a picked team from Tonopah during their stay there.

The party will return to Berkeley on the evening of Friday, April 3, the night before the first intercollegiate baseball game with Stanford. C. H. Fry, '07, will manage the trip and Professors Loudernack Wood and Instructor Larson will accompany the seniors on the journey.

The train which the party will take leaves the Oakland mole at 7:30 p. m. and does not wait for the local connection, so that the members are requested to leave Berkeley not later than 6:45.

Those in charge have requested the men to take seats in the car as assigned in the petrography laboratory until after the party ticket has been checked.

WARMED BEES ROUT CO-EDS

Honeyed Tribe Objects to Stove Heat and Stampedes Class.

BERKELEY, March 28.—College girls to the number of two dozen or more were stampeded yesterday afternoon in the entomological building on the university campus by a swarm of bees which with a noise like a buzz came escaped from an overturned hive and flew in all directions about the class and through the open door into the hallway.

Professor C. W. Woodworth was conducting the class in apiculture when the accident occurred. The moment before the class of fifty men and women was all attention. A few moments after the escape the bees had the room to themselves with only the professor and the bee man Ralph Button, in sight. The echo of the feminine screams and hasty footsteps on the stairs outside was all the evidence to tell that the class had really been stampeded.

Button had brought the bees into the room that Professor Woodworth might the more vividly demonstrate the wonderful qualities of the insects. It was a cold morning, however, and the bees failed to stir around enough to suit the professor. He ordered Button to take them over to the stove and warm them up. Button warmed them. He got them into a fine state of humming activity. Then he started to carry the glass hive over to the professor's desk. It was then the lid came off the bee box and the lecture was abruptly terminated.

The assistant in the department of entomology worked all of yesterday evening the bees back into their hive. Today the class assembled as usual the nervous of the co-eds having been restored.

LANDLORD TO OPPOSE GIRLS

Offers Reward for the Arrest of Person Who Stole the Alpha Phi Insignia.

BERKELEY, March 28.—A reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who stole an art glass window from the home of Mrs. F. J. McVey of 2400 Durant avenue, formerly occupied by the Alpha Phi Sorority, has been offered by John Conant, of 534 Twenty-fifth street, Oakland, the owner of the house.

Conant said today "I built the house at 2400 Durant avenue two years ago for the Alpha Phi Sorority. Before their lease expired the girls left the house and I had considerable trouble collecting my rent and obtaining the keys to the house. I offered to give the art window to the girls, if they would pay me what it cost. They refused and now I think that they have taken it. I offer a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the thief or thieves."

If You Buy Your Boy's Clothes at Keller's You Won't Have to Buy so Often.

It's a sort of tug of war between a boy and his clothes all the time—with the odds in favor of the boy.

Our kind of clothes even up matters a good deal. They are built from fabrics famous for their iron-like wear—and they are built extra strong to stand the strenuous stunts of active youngsters. The manly little chap at the left is wearing one of

Jury Returns Verdict Against
Italians Accused of Defrauding
Countryman

We find both the defendants guilty as charged in the information was the verdict returned last night by the jury which listened several days to the testimony in the alleged bunco case said to have been played by Pietro Scropizi and Giuseppe on Paul Binello by which the latter paid with $720.

The Italians were accused of having passed a package of iron washers and Confederate bills off to Binello for his package of money, the sale of a life time. It was claimed by the defense yesterday in closing their case that a card game had been played by which Binello was as guilty as the defendants when it came down to a bunco game. Deputy District Attorney John L. McVea prosecuted the case. The defendants attorneys intend to carry the case to a higher court.

NO VERDICT IN MURDER TRIAL

Peculiar Case Heard by Jury, Majority of Which Was For Acquittal.

LOS ANGELES, March 28.—The jury in the William Proper murder case today disagreed and was discharged. They stood 8 for acquittal and 4 for conviction for manslaughter.

The case was a peculiar one. Proper was accused of shooting to death George Spelce on the night of January 19. Spelce in his dying statement said Proper tried to hold him up and finally shot him. Proper said he was acting as night watchman when Spelce attacked and cut him with a knife and that the fired and killed the latter in self-defense. Both stories were partially corroborated. Proper will be tried again.

KELLER'S

THE BIG STORE WITH
THE LITTLE RENT AND
THE BEST VALUES

We give better values than any other store in the city. There isn't the shadow of a doubt about it. We know that the other stores make practically the same claim. But we enjoy advantages possessed by no other house in our line. Listen! We are paying the same low rent today that we paid ten years ago. That alone places us in a position to give you more for your money than you get anywhere else—and we do. Then Keller's is not an extravagant store. Merchandise features are always foremost. Brilliant and spectacular decorations are costly. They please the fancy, but increase the cost of goods! Our practical and conservative methods of store management are not intended to appeal to your sense of display. They are meant to accord with your ideas of economy. Many houses indulge in theatrical effects at your expense. The Keller store is just a big, completely stocked, homelike place where everything is done for the welfare and comfort of customers. But its values are positively matchless.

Where We Stand

On the Ready-for-Service

Clothing Question

About six months ago we planned to lift our clothing business to a new plane of excellence. We had been furnishing clothing quite a bit better than most stores were selling. But it didn't quite measure up to the standard we had set. Now it does. Now the Keller ready-to-wear Suits and Overcoats are so nearly perfect that the only thing the best custom tailors in the land could add to them would be price.

Suits and Overcoats $15.00 to $37.50

Keller's $15.00 Suits and Overcoats

Are in a Class by themselves

The other stores don't—can't—sell equally good suits and overcoats for less than $20.00 or $22.50. Either their rents are too high—their store expenses too costly—or their business too small. Why not save that $5 or $7.50?

The Old Hat with that New Easter Suit?

Never! It will make a discord and spoil the whole effect. Won't do at all. This is "sprucing up" time—spruce up all over or not at all. The Keller store is headquarters for hats. We have the largest stock of hats—the greatest variety of hats—the best hats—the snappiest styled hats—and the best values in hats to be found in the city. This is fact—not brag. Come and let us prove it.

We have the exclusive sale for the Keller $2.50 Hats—the Hawes $3.00 Hats—the Young $4.00 Hats—the Miller $5.00 Hats—and in addition to these matchless values we carry in stock the choicest styles of all other leading manufacturers.

Our hat men are experts. They know how to fit your face and figure as well as your head, fancy and purse. A barely discernable variation in brim or crown alone makes all the difference between the right hat and the wrong one for your face and figure.

Smart New Haberdashery for Easter

Our Furnishing Goods stock is never barren of interest to stylish dressers and the thrifty. Just now the department is more than ordinarily inviting. It is filled from end to end with the newest fashions in shirts, neckwear, gloves, hosery, fancy vests and all the other "fixings" that contribute to faultless dress, and our prices represent savings that are far from trifling. It would take pages of space to tell of all the attractive things that are here for you to see and buy. So we must ask you to judge the others by these four items.

EXPRESSIONS OF A BOXING FAN AT A CONTEST BY CASEY.

CONTRACTORS ARE GETTING FREEMAN'S PARK IN SHAPE

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Baseball is assured for Oakland. This much is certain. Already President Walter has his contractors on the job at Freeman's Park, and everything will be in readiness to entertain the ball players and fans when the season's scheduled opening rolls around. The old bleachers which did duty at Idora Park will be re-established at Freeman's Park, and there is every indication that these poor old bleachers will not be as long on their feet as they sometimes have been at Idora.

The fund which was gotten up for the retention of baseball in this city is growing and the committee of three expect to sell it considerably in the coming week. The up-to-date merchants of the city who have been approached have come through generously, and it is to their public spirit and the efforts of President Ed Walter that the fans will owe their baseball treat for the coming summer.

The old Freeman Park grounds were a bit shabby, but Mr. Walter has remedied this by securing an additional sixty feet of ground all along the left field fence. This will make the playing field sufficiently large and will afford the guardian of the left terrace opportunity for displaying his fielding skill. In the old days of Freeman's Park the left field fence was a bit close, and too many hits went out of the lot at this end of the grounds, but with the additional sixty feet the grounds will be sufficiently large for all playing purposes.

President Walter is well pleased with the work of the boosters so far as it has progressed, and is in hopes that the good work will be carried on. That the fans will support baseball here this summer is assured. They are already planning to go to the game, and would attend if a large volume were the season to open tomorrow.

CATES ARRIVES.

After a tedious journey overland, which consumed ten days of his valuable time, Eli Cates has arrived at Santa Barbara. Reports have it that Cates is in good shape and will not require very much training to put him in shape. Bill Kelly, his trip from old Kansas City, Mo., to touring Santa Barbara was one of top-heavy incidents. "The train was flooded bound the entire distance," avers Cates.

Bill Kelly declares that Cates walked from K. C. to Santa Barbara in shape for the opening game, and that the fans are pleased to learn that the demon "no hit" pitcher has finally arrived.

Cates held out for quite a time, but finally consented to sign up. The addition of Cates to the pitching force of the Oakland team completes the line-up of the Commuters. The players are all in the fold now, working nicely, and from accounts will give a good account of themselves on the diamond this season.

DEVEREAUX ON DECK.

The peppery Bill Devereaux is showing the form at the training camp and is keeping the boys in good spirit. Bill sends them all away laughing after the game, and his genial good nature and abundant flow of wit helped to smooth over the early rough places in the training.

Bill declares that Tiny Tom Hackett is looking like a big black bass since he consumed that $2.35 worth of delicious fish at the la carte sitting the other night. Devereaux's arm is stronger than ever, and his lung and stomach, no signs of decreasing power on the present trip. They say that Willie has caused Lost River to come out of its hiding place. Any gent or athlete who can do this is going some, and no mistake. Devereaux promises to be there with the "Whoa Bill" stuff stronger than ever this year, and as Basesy is somewhat of a noisemaker himself, the fans should get some delicious vocal entertainment out of the side to the ball games at Freeman's Park this summer.

NEW FANS.

Ordinarily Jimmy Coffroth, the fight promoter, is not to be enthused over things. As a rule Jimmy is cool and self contained, but he declared last night that he would be a regular at the ball game the coming season. Coffroth believes that the Coast League is going to be a first-rate story, and he wants to help the good work along. Jimmy has never seen a ball game outside the covers of some magazine, but he finally realizes that he has missed something worth while and is willing to make amends for his past laziness.

And there will be plenty of men just like Coffroth at the ball yards of the Coast League this season. The writer believes there is going to be a baseball awakening all along the line. The fans are working in unison to get their brethren in line this season, and there will be many a new face among the royal rosters this summer.

La Jole's baseball guide is out and it is a volume worth while for every baseball fan's library.

WRIGHT THE GOODS. Writing to President Ed Walter, Manager Van Halphen waxes enthusiastic over the new pitcher, Wright.

Sportman's Niche

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

THE pretty spectacle of a woman at a ring-side combat in which her husband was one of the gladiators greeted the blood lecherous eyes of some thousands of spectators at Dreamland Pavilion in San Francisco the other evening.

The damsel was Mrs. Cyclone Thompson, and she viewed the efforts of her husband, battle ragged and wolfish, with an instinct of stoicism quite unbecoming her sex. After her battle stained lord emerged from the ring with the marks of his battle heavy upon him, she eyed him, doleful, submerged into a state where every wolfish instinct in his nature was wrapped in the avoidance of pain. Lady Thompson, mindless of a multitude greeted her Lord Thompson with an elastic and linguisic kiss so reminiscent of the last kiss of Lady Macbeth, the Thane of Glamis would willingly consent to the murder of his good King Duncan, and the heroic embrace Camille gave to her lover in the death hour when she viewed her days numbered.

That a fight club would allow a woman to view a contest is in no wise speaking high of the ruling intelligence of the club.

It is not meet for fair Portias or Julietts to give their presence and display of their personal charms on such occasions.

It comes by his birthright for a man of Saxon or Celtic blood to witness deeds of hand-to-hand with unflinching eye and thrilled heart but when it comes to investing the game with the fair Dukes the men who run the fight clubs are overstepping all decency of public decorum.

Certainly it is an inspiring sight to see a latter day Salome on the ring-side, head of her lord in passionate embrace. This smack of the tenderloin has no place in a fight club, and the writer, while he is neither prophet nor seer, would advise the fight promoters to switch the curtains on the gentler sex at ring-side contests. It is not fitting this present civilization, and much as some of our fight promoters might like to shift back the calendar of time to the date when my manly friend, the gladiator, was the abler of life and death at the games of Roman gladiators methinks a public conscience will not be of a stomach equal to such a display of vulgarity.

The word skidoo was claimed out of a selling race by a magazine writer.

WE infer from Mr. Corrigan's remarks that the strained relations between himself and Francis Trevelyn are strained only on one side.

Paradoxical as it may seem Abe Ruef was on the ground floor of the prize fight trust.

A point star ball tossers should ponder on is this. About the easiest thing to forget is a star ball player out of work.

All the modern automobiles are guaranteed to run from six to one hundred miles an hour. That puts it up to the discretion of the owner when it comes to dealing with the genarmies.

Eddie Graney arises Phoenixlike from the debris and offers $35,000 for the Gans-Nelson battle. Going some, Edwarcus.

It will be cruel and unusual punishment to compel a gentleman bearing a name like Abe Ruef to seek an immunity bath.

NOTWITHSTANDING that Chicago's great ball club is training in Mexico City the greaser's heart still clings to the bull and the chicken, as the nucleus of national recreation.

E. Z. Steve—John Barleycorn always fought at catch weights.

MIKE Powers, the physician catcher of the Philadelphia club, is quite a noted wit, if one can take a young woman friendly to both players, was once talking to two Athletics during Powers' student days, and she happened to remark to Mike that she supposed he and his fellow students of the medical school had quite say times.

"Yes," drawled Mike, "we do out quite a great deal."

When Rube Waddell was tending bar over in Camden, N. J., an argument arose between himself and a customer as to the best way to make friends.

"Treat 'em kindly is the way to make 'em," vociferated Cy.

"Treat 'em often is the real candy," exclaimed the Rube, "and who's this one going to be on?"

CLARKE GRIFFITH once thought he discovered George Stone's batting weakness. One day Walter Clarkson worked against the browns at New York and he had the great Stone on his staff, striking him out three times. Griffith was watching the proceedings closely and noticed that Clarkson used a low curve ball with telling effect on the St. Louis swatter. The best he did during the day was to make three or four good hard fouls.

The following day Hogg was selected to work for New York and Griffith's parting instruction to the big fellow was to give Stone nothing but a low curve ball at about the knee. Hogg followed instructions and the result was that Stone secured five clean hits in 23 many times at the bat hitting the ball that mystified him on the day preceding to all corners of the lot. Of course, no one questioned Griffith's judgment.

Al Clark worked the third game of the series, and he left the bench he turned around to Griffith and with a half smile on his expansive countenance asked Griff if he would give Stone a low curve ball. Griff failed to reply, nor did he smile, but every other member of the New York team laughed outright.

Jake Stahl and Tim Hurst had many a "run" last summer over close decisions, but wily Tim never failed to win the argument. At the first of the season Jake had a habit of running to the plate from first base on every close decision. The frequency with which he was ejected from the game, however, entirely cured him of this habit.

One day at Washington Hurst called Jake out at first base on a close play, and the former Washington manager, not up to a big bow, he rushed back to Hurst and tried to persuade "Tubby Tim" that he wasn't out. Tim rather liked to hear Jake orate as he knew he was a "Rah, Rah" boy, and for a time he listened to his arguments with interest.

"To the bench with you," finally commanded Tim, after he thought Jake had gone far enough.

"I refuse to go," said Stahl.

"Just for that you are out twice," replied Tim, "out at first and out of the game."

Jake took his little glove and hiked to the clubhouse, debating whether it was really worth while to be a baseball manager.—Detroit Journal.

TURF INTERESTING NOTES ABOUT RACING MATTERS GOSSIP

By LEE DEMIER.

By LEE DEMIER.

As a result of fair weather, a decided increase in the attendance was noticeable at Williams Park yesterday. The racing program was an attractive one, with the St. Philiphina Handicap as the feature, and in this event a half-dozen shifty performers sported silk. The track was of the drying out order and along the rail very heavy and holding. All horses unfortunate enough to be forced in this going, lost all chance of getting to the front. In consequence, the talent had another hard day and witnessed a number of upsets, as well as high-class sport.

The biggest upset of the season took place in the opening race, in which eleven ordinary souling players lined up. Lassen and Dr. Rowell, both at 100 to 1, took first and second money, and third position went to Bon Vivant, which was quoted at 30 to 1. This was not a true race, the chances were crowded to the rail and as a result, finished nowhere. Lassen picked the good going and after Dr. Rowell and Smithy Kane cried enough, just broke home. Bon Vivant was best of the others.

Love of Gold, the second choice, just got under a hard drive on the part of Jockey Fisher, to snatch the purse from Adena, the favorite by a head. Show money went to Excalibur, the rank outsider, who, after setting the pace, got anchored on the rail and tired badly. That the Keene colt was the best of these two is a pity.

The third favorite to be bowled over was Plunk, who after showing early speed, could do no better than finish in the limbo. The winner turned up in Vincent at 8 to 1, and to C. Williams is due the victory. The lad put up a well judged and powerful ride and out-generated Fair on Alma Boy. With any kind of a ride the latter would have scored.

"Red" Walker's consistent performer Edwin Gum drew down another prize, when in a hard drive he lasted long enough to win the St. Philiphina Handicap by a length. The winner receded from 8 to 5 to 5 to 2 at post time and had to be hard ridden at the end of the race. The latter was weakly handled and with riders reversed the result would have been different. Also poorly handled. The former fell help to third money.

Confessor annexed the purse to the six and one-half furlong scramble from the Diponate and Sheen, the winner was the heavily played favorite and was much the best. This was the first race of the day that was run to form and the bookies lost a wad, as the three choices finished one, two, three as they figured.

The five furlong dash was only a snip for Tavera. The bay mare made her field dizzy trying to catch him, but went on about her business and won the romp. Blanche C. came to life rather suddenly and secured the place in a drive from May Day.

Turfites from New York to California will be pained to hear of the sudden death of Jim Miller, the noted bookmaker's clerk. He was born in Lexington, Ky., but in late years he has made his home at Columbus, Ohio, where his parents now reside. The remains will be buried from the undertaking parlors at 1715 Eddy St., San Francisco. May lay be laid away west of the Rockies. He was connected with the Alamo Club.

There is a young man in Oakland by the name of Grant. He is away ahead of the game by betting on his name.

Pantotus had all the speed for a mile and then coughed it up.

Rightful was a bad last.

Andrew Mack did not like the track.

Jockey Hunter was presented with a mounted clock for winning the St. Philiphina Handicap with Edwin Gum. B. Jeffrey donated the clock.

The firm of Jennings & Mackay have purchased 250 acres within a few miles of Woodland, Colo. county.

Trainer Fred Mercker is on the sick list.

A W Ream is now the owner of Forest Rose, by St. Aronius.

Twenty-nine bookies lined up yesterday.

Big Ed Henry (Yellow) will take in the Crawfish country this summer.

Jockey Knepper, the well-known and popular rider, left last night for Louisville. This lad will be sadly missed, as his work in the saddle has been of the best. He is on this course and Ascot Park.

Bookmaker Ed Kelly said he can't get right. Pull yourself together, Kelly.

Sam Newman, a noted railroad man, was a visitor at the track yesterday.

There is a bunch of heavy riders at the track.

Little Eddie Dugan will be seen in the saddle Saturday.

The Gebhard Slakes is the next big thing that will be decided Saturday.

Confessor was the TRIBUNE's best bet that went through.

Robert Pinkerton, the noted detective, was the center of attraction at Williams Park yesterday, having come up from Ascot.

Paddy Lynch has sold George P. McNear to L. A. Lee & Sons. Terms private.

Lassen and Dr. Rowell were the two 100 to 1 shots that went begging.

Mary F. will be a hard horse to beat from now on.

Supreme Court got a third degree decision.

Tobe Ramsey, the king of the jungles and his friends cleaned up on the win of Confessor.

Queen Anne was the good thing that blew up when the real racing began.

Blanche C. showed a remarkably sudden reversal of form and came in for upsetting the stew. "Well, Polk, I've got to hand it to you."

Tab Fair Faggs. This good colt will win a race, the next time out.

Jockey Leroy Williams will leave for New York next week. He will ride at Aqueduct.

Harry Mack, the Missouri horseman, unseated Love of Gold and Tavera yesterday.

Bohemian Club held out Supreme Court.

Twenty-nine bookies lined up yesterday.

JIM COFFROTH MAKES BIG BID FOR STAR ATTRACTION

Genial James Offers $37,000 for Return Match Between Gans and Nelson for Colma Athletic Club.

By EDDIE SMITH.

The bidding for the Nelson-Gans fight has gone up another notch, with James Coffroth the bidder with an added two thousand to Graney's $35,000, making a bid of $37,000. Billy Roach last night posted $5000 with a San Francisco sporting editor to show good faith, stating that he was acting for the Colma Club, which is to again enter the field and bid for all the large attractions that are to be secured.

The impression that Nolan has no intention of signing his meal ticket for another meeting with the negro at the present time has become general, and until Billy Nolan at least shows some disposition of talking business on a fair basis the fans and public at large will be inclined to pay little attention to the prattle of the promoters in their attempts to outbid one another. Nolan has made his final ultimatum that Gans must sign articles and post a forfeit that he will weigh 133 pounds at the ringside with his fighting togs on. He insists that he will not recede from this stand and that there is no use in talking of a fight until the negro has come to his terms. Selig says that there is not a chance for Gans to sign any such agreement.

That settles the proposed fight for some time, if both managers are sincere in the stand that they have taken. Selig will not give in for Gans for some time at least if he ever does, and Nolan has the world's record for stubbornness, so it is a safe bet that he will not capitulate in a day or so.

While the negotiations for the Nelson-Gans fight are going on, Jim Coffroth is quietly working on a fight that, while not as great an attraction, will no doubt prove a better paying investment to the promoter, in that the men will meet for a percentage of what they can draw, which is the proper way for fighters to meet.

Britt and Gans are the two that he is trying to induce that it would be a good idea to mix things in an arena. Coffroth claims that he already has Gans' name to a set of articles and that he is ready to go ahead with the arrangements. Britt for some reason holds aloof from signing, however, and James may have some trouble in convincing the native that it would pay him to take another chance with the champion. Jimmy has repeatedly stated that he would like nothing better than a chance to meet Gans in San Francisco in order that he might convince those who witnessed the last contest between the pair that he was really the negro's master. Coffroth has now come to the front, and as soon as the Gans-Nelson talk, which will in all probabilities come to naught, has died away, the astute James will force Britt on record by either forcing him to sign articles or admit that he does not want any of the negro's game.

The Britts have been idle for a long time and are becoming restless and want to get back into the game. Jimmy is working every day in the gymnasium and is reported as being in first-rate condition. Whether or not he will sign with the negro no one can tell, but that he would sign with Nelson goes without saying. Down deep, Jimmy is in hopes that if the Nelson-Gans fight falls through he will get another chance at the Dane and as this is his one pugilistic ambition he may be holding or in hopes of getting the chance.

OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL BEATS BERKELEY TEAM

Scholastic Teams Play an Interesting Game of Baseball at Freeman's Park --Harris Is the Feature.

Yesterday afternoon at Freeman's Park the boys of the local high school defeated the Berkeley baseball team. The score was: O. H. S., 2; B. H. S., 1. During the last half of the first inning Johnny Irwin and Jimmy Rye galloped over the home plate and scored the two runs that won the game for Oakland. In the fourth inning one of the red socks got home, making the only run for the Berkeley high.

The Berkeley team had on new suits of a bluish gray color and had red and yellow trimmings. The local boys were much less conspicuous for their suits that Mr. Hecox gave them were tied up in the Wells-Fargo office.

Harris pitching was one of the features of the day. He pitched a cool, heavy game, and he shoots the ball over like it comes from a cannon. He seemed to know where to put the ball so they would have to knock it into someone's hands. Tom Ralph caught for Harris and tagged a man out on the plate after a difficult catch. Not once did he make a bad throw. Once when a Berkeley man was playing off of second, Captain Coffey of the Oakland, who was playing centerfield, ran up to the second bag and caught him out. Dick Dunn played a fine game at first. He is reliable and sure. Jimmy Rye and Joe Hunt played fine games at second and third, while Johnny Irwin was the whole thing at short. The field was well tended to by Bridgeman, Coffey and Porter.

In the sixth inning Coffey went into the box for Oakland and fanned three men out the first thing. He pitched a steady game and led his team in an able manner.

SPORTING NEWS EDITED BY EDDIE SMITH

KID WEBSTER GETS DECISION
OVER JOCKEY WORTHINGTON

Los Angeles Boy Is the Stronger and Wins Rough Battle—Ed Miller Showed Wonderful Punch.

Kid Webster earned the decision in the wind up, and main event of the Buell Club's bouts last night from Jockey Ralph Worthington after four rounds of vicious mugging, which pleased a large and enthusiastic turn out of fans.

Webster showed the best hitting power and superior judge of distance, but Worthington fought back like a young tiger and made several rallies in the hope of winning.

Webster seemed to be the more rugged boy, but the Jockey had a method of getting in close and ripping at all with head and shoulders and Webster at once. The style worried Webster for a time, but he finally solved the argument with the former slop-chase rider in all the rounds.

Young Choyko showed a boy in Eddie Miller, who has a bit of English friends would call a bit of "claw." Miller is a rangy boy with a wallop. He hits clean and is an effective fighter. Willie Hagan, a rather neat proposition himself, was successful against Miller. The boys mixed it in the first round, and Miller caught Hagan a but on the mazzard, which brought forth a freshet of blood from the lad's eye. Hagan finished the round well.

The boys started a rough pace in the second round and this period was not far advanced when Miller slipped Hagan a package. It weighed only five ounces, but when it landed on the point of Hagan's lower maxillary the red-headed boy flopped as though the City Hall fell on him. Miller showed the punch across while the lads were emerging from a clinch. He did not bring it up from his ankle. It was a neat and decisive stroke, about six inches and when it landed it sounded the call for the Red Cross wagon.

Kid Kostia and J. Allen furnished the curtain raiser. It would take more than this paper could print in two months to tell what these boys don't know about fighting, but they were willing. Off to a slow start the boys landed a speedy clip at the end of the bout, and walloped each other hard. Allen had Kostia looking like a life model of Sitting Bull towards the close of the bout. Kid kept hitting Allen's glove with his face until his face and shoulders were blood smeared. Referee Smith decided that Allen was entitled to the decision.

Fred Murphy and Ed Zell furnished the second act in the olio. Zell did well enough for two rounds, but in the third he had a brain storm, but the floor and decided that a live craven was better than a dead hero.

When Referee Smith informed "Kid" Zell that the curfew had rung for him the urchin got up, and thanked Eddie kindly for the courtesy.

Next time they send Kid Zell out to a passage at arms they might as well slip the nursery bottle along.

Joe Larkin and Battling Martin furnished the semi-wind up. These gentlemen pounded each other up considerably for three rounds.

Larkin started off like a winner. He hammered Martin all over the ring and he looked a winner all over. Martin was game and stuck it out. In the second round Martin slipped one into Larkin's kitchen and upset the last sixteen meals that gentleman stowed away. Larkin was in no condition for rough treatment around mid-second, and that one clout took all the steam out of him. He certainly showed gameness of an undoubted quality.

Martin hammered Larkin on the stomach hard and often in the third round and Referee Smith stopped the bout giving the decision to the Battler.

Danny Murphy and Eddie Webber put up a neat fourth round. The tooth-like Murphy showed gameness, landed a couple of good punches and gave about as much punishment as he took. This fight was full of action from the sound of the gong. Toothpick kept walking away but he slammed in many a nice clout at long range and did effective body fighting in the clinches. Webber landed a couple of swings on Murphy which looked as though they might take the wind out of his sails, but the human slat held out and got a draw.

After the decision Toothpick rushed over to Webber and kissed him on the forehead. The audience applauded the action.

BILLIARD NEWS

A most peculiar incident occurred at the Oakland Billiard Parlor in the Oaks-Peet match last evening, marring an otherwise close and sensational finish. Peet scored last from the opening shot and at one interval took 21 to 24. Oaks then commenced to roll the balls true and brought the score to 24 all. With each player needing but one point to win, Bob looked through a microscope, giving the winning point thereby to his opponent. Old time billiardists say they have no recollection of any similar occurrence in a tournament game. The rules infict said penalty, however, and Oaks accepted his defeat as gracefully as possible.

Score—Peet 25. Average 25.66. Oaks—24. Average 24.66. Referee—J. F. Cross.

Tonight—Harris vs. King. A great game between two leaders with the chance for first prize hanging in the balance.

MANAGER FOR TENNIS
TEAM

The tennis situation, which for a time looked very bad is gradually clearing up. A regular tennis manager has been appointed by Graduate Manager Snedgar and this man is actively arranging for the preliminary tournaments and tournaments. The inter-collegiate tournament has been set for the same day as the varsity track meet and will be held on the California court.

Games and doubles will begin on Monday, the men who have entered for these will draw games today and arrange dates. A large number have entered and their names will be published when schedules are completed.

When Herbert Long, '09, the college champion of last year and the prospective representative for California against this year's left college, chances for a Cardinal victory looked unusually bright. Melville Long, '10, is coast champion, and would probably be an easy winner in the inter-collegiate tournament.

Several good combinations have been entered for the doubles. Claude Wayne, '07, and C. R. Clinch, '09 will be one of the strongest teams to compete. Wayne played on the varsity last year and was easily won by Stanford. Clinch was unable to show his ability last year as the tournaments did not come off on account of the curfew law. J. B. Francis, '07 and O. Lowell, '07, hold the doubles championship of Northern California.

In the singles Wayne is the most experienced player. He was college champion in 1905 and was a close competitor of Long in last year's tournaments. S. D. Harper, '08 and R. Gorrell, '08, are also both good players and are entered in the singles.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppe. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our family was unable to help him, when, by our druggist's advice, I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noted improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter's work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold remedy by Osgood Bros., druggists, Seventh and Broadway, and 510 and 512, and 514, and 516, and 518, and 520, and 522, and 524, and 526, and 528, and 530, and 532, and 534, and 536, and 538, and 540, and 542, and 544, and 546, and 548, and 550, and 552, and 554, and 556, and 558, and 560, and 562, and 564, and 566, and 568, and 570, and 572, and 574, and 576, and 578, and 580, and 582, and 584, and 586, and 588, and 590, and 592, and 594, and 596, and 598, and 600, and 602, and 604, and 606, and 608, and 610, and 612, and 614, and 616, and 618, and 620, and 622, and 624, and 626, and 628, and 630, and 632, and 634, and 636, and 638, and 640, and 642, and 644, and 646, and 648, and 650, and 652, and 654, and 656, and 658, and 660, and 662, and 664, and 666, and 668, and 670, and 672, and 674, and 676, and 678, and 680, and 682, and 684, and 686, and 688, and 690, and 692, and 694, and 696, and 698, and 700, and 702, and 704, and 706, and 708, and 710, and 712, and 714, and 716, and 718, and 720, and 722, and 724, and 726, and 728, and 730, and 732, and 734, and 736, and 738, and 740, and 742, and 744, and 746, and 748, and 750, and 752, and 754, and 756, and 758, and 760, and 762, and 764, and 766, and 768, and 770, and 772, and 774, and 776, and 778, and 780, and 782, and 784, and 786, and 788, and 790, and 792, and 794, and 796, and 798, and 800, and 802, and 804, and 806, and 808, and 810, and 812, and 814, and 816, and 818, and 820, and 822, and 824, and 826, and 828, and 830, and 832, and 834, and 836, and 838, and 840, and 842, and 844, and 846, and 848, and 850, and 852, and 854, and 856, and 858, and 860, and 862, and 864, and 866, and 868, and 870, and 872, and 874, and 876, and 878, and 880, and 882, and 884, and 886, and 888, and 890, and 892, and 894, and 896, and 898, and 900, and 902, and 904, and 906, and 908, and 910, and 912, and 914, and 916, and 918, and 920, and 922, and 924, and 926, and 928, and 930, and 932, and 934, and 936, and 938, and 940, and 942, and 944, and 946, and 948, and 950, and 952, and 954, and 956, and 958, and 960, and 962, and 964, and 966, and 968, and 970, and 972, and 974, and 976, and 978, and 980, and 982, and 984, and 986, and 988, and 990, and 992, and 994, and 996, and 998, and 1000, and 1002, and 1004, and 1006, and 1008, and 1010, and 1012, and 1014, and 1016, and 1018, and 1020, and 1022, and 1024, and 1026, and 1028, and 1030, and 1032, and 1034, and 1036, and 1038, and 1040, and 1042, and 1044, and 1046, and 1048, and 1050, and 1052, and 1054, and 1056, and 1058, and 1060, and 1062, and 1064, and 1066, and 1068, and 1070, and 1072, and 1074, and 1076, and 1078, and 1080, and 1082, and 1084, and 1086, and 1088, and 1090, and 1092, and 1094, and 1096, and 1098, and 1100, and 1102, and 1104, and 1106, and 1108, and 1110, and 1112, and 1114, and 1116, and 1118, and 1120, and 1122, and 1124, and 1126, and 1128, and 1130, and 1132, and 1134, and 1136, and 1138, and 1140, and 1142, and 1144, and 1146, and 1148, and 1150, and 1152, and 1154, and 1156, and 1158, and 1160, and 1162, and 1164, and 1166, and 1168, and 1170, and 1172, and 1174, and 1176, and 1178, and 1180, and 1182, and 1184, and 1186, and 1188, and 1190, and 1192, and 1194, and 1196, and 1198, and 1200, and 1202, and 1204, and 1206, and 1208, and 1210, and 1212, and 1214, and 1216, and 1218, and 1220, and 1222, and 1224, and 1226, and 1228, and 1230, and 1232, and 1234, and 1236, and 1238, and 1240, and 1242, and 1244, and 1246, and 1248, and 1250, and 1252, and 1254, and 1256, and 1258, and 1260, and 1262, and 1264, and 1266, and 1268, and 1270, and 1272, and 1274, and 1276, and 1278, and 1280, and 1282, and 1284, and 1286, and 1288, and 1290, and 1292, and 1294, and 1296, and 1298, and 1300, and 1302, and 1304, and 1306, and 1308, and 1310, and 1312, and 1314, and 1316, and 1318, and 1320, and 1322, and 1324, and 1326, and 1328, and 1330, and 1332, and 1334, and 1336, and 1338, and 1340, and 1342, and 1344, and 1346, and 1348, and 1350, and 1352, and 1354, and 1356, and 1358, and 1360, and 1362, and 1364, and 1366, and 1368, and 1370, and 1372, and 1374, and 1376, and 1378, and 1380, and 1382, and 1384, and 1386, and 1388, and 1390, and 1392, and 1394, and 1396, and 1398, and 1400, and 1402, and 1404, and 1406, and 1408, and 1410, and 1412

THE CANTOR COMPANY 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY

TO BUILD HANDSOME HOME FOR INCURABLE PATIENTS

PROPOSED ALAMEDA COUNTY KINGS' DAUGHTERS' HOME FOR INCURABLES.

Directors of the Alameda County Kings' Daughters' Institution Raising Money for Project in Novel Manner.

Money for the construction of the proposed Alameda County Kings' Daughters' Home for incurables is being raised through a unique method
recently inaugurated by the directors of the institution.

The plan is one which it is hoped will appeal to all who feel inclined to make Easter offerings. It consists of a small pastebord with a convenient pocket in it for the holding of money or checks. This contrivance is mailed to persons and it is believed will in nearly every instance come back to the directors with a small or large contribution.

The directors have received from the architects Miss Julia Morgan and R. Hoover plans for the construction of a wooden building costing about sixty-five thousand dollars twenty-five thousand of which have been subscribed leaving forty thousand dollars to raise.

Nearly all the rooms of the patients will have the sun. The administration rooms will be located on the north side of the front will be on Broadway, consequently receiving the afternoon sun.
One wing will extend along the north but the rooms of the patients will be exposed to the sun and another wing will be on the east, and three slides will surround a court or small garden which being entirely open will receive the sun all day.

Part of the present building standing in 1892 was seriously damaged by the earthquake of that year and 1906 that it is not deemed safe or advisable to repair it.

TOKIO, March 28.—According to information received from Kiro James Henry Smith of New York who died there yesterday began to complain of toothache while in the Indian Ocean.
Upon reaching Shanghai he consulted a physician who succeeded in relieving the pain to some extent. When he arrived at Nagasaki the pain again became severe but with medical assistance he reached Kobe where another physician was consulted. He finally proceeded to Kyoto by train but when that city was reached he was so weak that he had to be carried to his hotel where he underwent a surgical operation on his gum on March 26. After the operation he was progressing fairly well but suddenly on March 28 grave symptoms developed and he expired at 9 o'clock that evening.

It is believed that a cancer was the cause of his death. The surgeons who atended him say that his life might have been saved had he not been physically exhausted when the operation was performed.

TO PROMOTE LOCAL TALENT

Plan Organization to Assist and Develop Western Drama and Artists.

BERKELEY, March 28.—Actor folk and singers of no mean repute have been produced from out of the quiet environs of the University town and in order to unearth and stimulate undeveloped talent along these two lines, a musical and dramatic organization is soon to be created.

Those who have started this movement do not wish to give the names of the patrons and patronesses, who it is hinted, will include those who stand at the top of the list in drama and music and all of the members as many of the professional members will be drawn from all parts of California as well as round the bay, much correspondence is necessitated before a definite list of members can be secured.

ITS OBJECT.

Primarily, the organization has for its object the formation and promotion of a western drama and western artists. One of the organizers tersely remarked:

"Every year we send our best singers, our greatest actors and actresses and our best promising musicians to the East and then we pay exorbitant prices to see them once or twice during the limited engagement of one week. Not only that, but we guarantee these Eastern companies large sums to help their companies out here. As a result today we have no actors or actresses of any reputation out here in the West. We educate and train artists and then we allow the East to reap the benefits."

There is then the real object of the organization—build up dramatic companies out here in the West which shall be equally as strong as those in New York.

HIGH CLASS PLAYS.

Not only will the organization promote Western actors and actresses to the East but it will also endeavor to educate the theater-going public to a higher class of plays. Many plays which are not put on today because they do not appeal to the "popular taste" will be secured and presented by a company of amateurs
but by the leading professionals of the West. Of course there will be ample opportunity for the professionals to show their talents.

There is still another object of the organization. It is the ultimate interest of the community to make Berkeley the Athens of America, the place where only the finest dramatic and musical events take place.

NEW THEATER.

The organization intends to interest capital to construct in Berkeley a great theater and music hall where performances of any magnitude may be given. They are firm in the belief of the development of Berkeley and the eastern shore of the bay, and believe such an undertaking would be of great financial benefit.

Though the organization is yet in embryo, plans are being made for a series of "problem" plays. The organizers are in communication with George Bernard Shaw and hope to be able to produce a number of his plays in the near future. A play is now being written for them by a young western playwright. Whenever it is possible the organization intends to produce the original plays by California authors. The English Department of the University if it is said, are to cooperate with the organization in giving the plays.

In the musical concerts to be given by the society a unique plan is to be adopted. In these programs, the history of the composers and a technical discussion of each selection will be played will be printed. In addition, a musicalian of known ability will give a short talk before the first number of the music of the evening.

COMPANY OF STARS.

During the summer months, the organization expects to give performances by a company of stars. Many leading actresses and actors spend their vacations in California. For instance Modjeska, Lillian Russell, Florence Roberts, Nance O'Neill, Maxine Elliott, Nat Goodwin and Frederick Ward, who by the way is to take up a permanent residence in this State.
As the organization is not strictly professional efforts will be made to get these stars to combine in giving two or three performances.

Until the scope of the organization is enlarged and a permanent theater constructed only one of two performances a month will be given.

ROOSEVELT PORTRAIT FOR HAGUE PALACE

WASHINGTON, March 28.—President Roosevelt's latest portrait, the work of Constantino Doblehoff, is to be exhibited in New York. Paris and Berlin before being taken to The Hague, where it is to be given a conspicuous place in the peace palace.
The portrait has just been completed and has been shown to a number of in-imate friends of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

It will be the gift to the peace palace of a number of admirers of the President in Paris, chief among whom is the Countess Bobrinsky. The picture shows the President standing, one hand in his pocket and the other resting on his hip. The sittings were held in the private office of the President in the White House and it was the wish of his friends in Paris that President Roosevelt should be shown in a characteristic attitude.

Those who are familiar with the President's customary facial expressions will find that the French artist has modified his spirit and animated countenance to a material degree.
While the likeness is excellent, the President's face rarely wears such an animated expression. The painter was given a half-dozen sittings by the President and depended for the finishing touches upon recent photographs of the Chief Executive.

VARSIITY MEN GOLD MINING

Nevada Is Flocked With College
Graduates Seeking Wealth—
Form Club.

RENO, Nev., March 28.—There are perhaps more university graduates or men who have attended schools of higher learning in Nevada than in any other State in the Union in proportion to the population. Every camp, town and county is crowded with former varsity men. Some are former stars of the eleven, the crew, the fine debating team, and even the Young Men's Christian Association is represented. But out of it all there is no organization formed for the perpetuation of the ideals for which the men were trained. The college graduates for the most part are here by the excitement he is prone to meet with his fellow classmates and discuss old times,
the deeds of a different life.

FORM CLUB.

Therefore the Nevada University
Club is about to be formed. Judge
Norcross of the State Supreme Court, a Georgetown man, is one of those in favor of the project. Judge Sweeney of St. Mary's, Oakland, and later of Georgetown, will help in the organization. A D. Elliot, recent clerk of the Senate of Nevada and a Harvard grad, says that he will put his shoulder to the wheel. Assemblyman "Big Ed" Stewart who operates in Tonopah and Manhattan, will pay the charter membership fee with gladness. "Big Ed" has been fired from more universities and graduated from more than perhaps any man in Nevada. "Slim" Stevens of Manhattan, formerly connected with Boston "Tech," will lend a hand toward helping the club. The Foe brothers, Princeton football stars of recent years, who are now in Goldfield want to help.

GIVE A BOOST.

Reno has a bunch of college men
who will give the association a boost.
The University of Nevada is well represented here in all the professions and businesses and Stanford, California, Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania,
Princeton, Michigan, Northwestern,
Chicago, Tulane, Virginia, Cornell,
Dartmouth, Georgetown, Brown, Oxford and Heidelberg have their representatives in this city. All Nevada towns claim such men.

When the club is formed immediate steps will be taken to secure funds for the purpose of building a club house in Reno, where all the members will have a place to make headquarters and always feel at home.

LOSES TICKET; NOW MISSING

Relatives of J. Wooster Fear He Went Crazy When Kept
From Going Home.

When J. Wooster, 41 years of age and a bookkeeper, lost his railroad ticket while passing through San Francisco en route from Los Angeles to his home in Ohio he had no further means of continuing his journey to the Buckeye State, so he crept a little but near a bridge and hired out as a laborer, clearing away debris. Nothing has been heard of his whereabouts for the past few months and his relatives in the east fear that he has been committed to some detention institution or insane asylum, for they say he was addicted to mental troubles.

Inquiries have been made at the inmate ward of the Receiving Hospital by the inquiry department of the Salvation Army, who are making a search for the missing man. Secretary William Day of 227 Mission street, San Francisco, has asked that information concerning Wooster's whereabouts be sent to him.
